In the foreground, the water of the harbor is visible, with many dark, vertical pilings or piers extending into it. The city skyline is composed of numerous skyscrapers of varying heights and architectural styles, some with lit windows. The overall mood is serene and majestic.

In the final section he deals with the reform of English law and ventures a prediction of the consequences that the new Civil Procedure Rules together with the reforms which more or less immediately preceded them will have on the character of English procedural law.
