A Transatlantic History of the Social Sciences Christian Fleck, 2011-03-04 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com From the beginning of the twentieth century scientific and social scientific research has been characterised by intellectual exchange between Europe and the US The establishment of the Third Reich ensured that from the German speaking world at least this became a one way traffic In this book Christian Fleck explores the invention of empirical social research which by 1950 had become the binding norm of international scholarship and he analyses the contribution of German refugee social scientists to its establishment The major names are here from Adorno and Horkheimer to Hirshman and Lazarsfeld but at the heart of the book is a unique collective biography based on original data from more than 800 German speaking social scientists Published in German in 2008 to great acclaim Fleck s important study of the transatlantic enrichment of the social sciences is now available in a revised English language edition A Genealogy of Method Sondra L. Hausner,2024-07-16 What does it mean to study culture and what does culture finally mean Whether we compare cultures or delve deeply into the dynamics of a single social order anthropology s task is to confront the interplay of the human condition and the cultural form Tracing the genealogy of our touchstone method ethnography and investigating its relation to alternative disciplines that try to get at the heart of the human experience philology history and social relations this volume considers whether contemporary anthropology might at last be able to define culture after more than a century of investigation Deconstructing Human Development Juan Telleria,2020-12-09 This book provides a critical deconstruction of the human development framework promoted by the United Nations Development Programme UNDP since 1990 Taking the Human Development Reports of the UNDP as its starting point for reflection this book investigates the construction of this framework as well as its political function since the end of the Cold War The book argues that the UNDP s discourse on development relies on essentialist philosophical cultural and political assumptions dating back to the 19th century and concludes that these assumptions also present in the MDGs and SDGs impede a full grasp of the complex and multi layered global problems of the current world Whilst development critiques traditionally relied on liberal Marxist or Foucauldian theoretical frameworks and focused on epistemological or political economy issues this book draws on the post foundational and post structuralist work of Ernesto Laclau and Jacques Derrida and proposes an ontological and relational reading of development discourses that both complements and further develops the insights of previous critiques This book is key reading for advanced students and researchers of Critical Development Studies Political Science the UN and Sustainable Development Sociology Confronts the Holocaust Judith M. Gerson,Diane L. Wolf,2007-07-11 There is an enormous amount of scholarship on the Holocaust and there is a large body of English language sociological research Oddly there is not much overlap between the two fields This text covers both fields The Synchronization of National Policies Pertti Alasuutari,2015-09-25 The Synchronization of National Policies shows how it is possible that there is remarkable uniformity in the policies that the nation states adopt although there is no world government Mainstream research attributes such global governance to the influence of leading countries to functional requirements created by capitalism and technological development or to international organizations This book argues that to understand how national policies are synchronized we need to realize that the global population forms a single global tribe of moderns divided into some 200 clans called nations While previous research on the world culture of moderns has focused on the diffusion of ideas this book concentrates on the active role of local actors who introduce global models and domesticate them to nation states In national policymaking actors justify new policies by international comparisons by the successes and failures of models adopted in other countries and by building and appealing to the authority of international organizations Consequently national policies are synchronized with each other Yet because of the way such domestication of global trends takes place citizens retain and reproduce the understanding that they follow a sovereign national trajectory This book will be of interest to students and scholars of sociology world culture theory globalization international relations and political science Fifty Key Sociologists: The Contemporary Theorists John

Scott,2007-01-24 Fifty Key Sociologists: The Contemporary Theorists covers the life work ideas and impact of some of the most important thinkers in this discipline Concentrating on figures writing predominantly in the second half of the twentieth century such as Zygmunt Bauman Pierre Bourdieu Judith Butler Michel Foucault and Claude L vi Strauss each entry includes full cross referencing a further reading section biographical data key works and ideas critical assessment Clearly presented in an easy to navigate A Z format this accessible reference guide is ideal for undergraduate and postgraduate students of sociology cultural studies and general studies as well as other readers interested in this fascinating field C. Wright Mills and the Cuban Revolution A. Javier Treviño,2017-04-05 In C Wright Mills and the Cuban Revolution A Javier Trevi o reconsiders the opinions perspectives and insights of the Cubans that Mills interviewed during his visit to the island in 1960 On returning to the United States the esteemed and controversial sociologist wrote a small paperback on much of what he had heard and seen which he published as Listen Yankee The Revolution in Cuba Those interviews now transcribed and translated are interwoven here with extensive annotations to explain and contextualize their content Readers will be able to hear Mills as an expert interviewer and ascertain how he used what he learned from his informants Trevi o also recounts the experiences of four central figures whose lives became inextricably intertwined during that fateful summer of 1960 C Wright Mills Fidel Castro Juan Arcocha and Jean Paul Sartre The singular event that compelled their biographies to intersect at a decisive moment in the history of Cold War geopolitics with its attendant animosities and intrigues was the Cuban Revolution

Transatlantic Voyages and Sociology Cherry Schrecker,2016-02-24 Transatlantic Voyages and Sociology explores the transatlantic journeys which have inspired American and European sociologists and contributed to the development of sociology in Europe and in North America Furthering our understanding of the very complex processes which affect the diffusion of ideas it sheds light on the diverse influences which come into play be they on an individual institutional or political level With an international team of experts investigating the reciprocal influence of sociological thought on either side of the Atlantic this volume will appeal to any scholar interested in the history of sociology the mutual influence of

systems of thought and the migration of ideas      Harvard's Quixotic Pursuit of a New Science Patrick L. Schmidt, 2022-06-21 In Harvard's Quixotic Pursuit of a New Science Patrick L. Schmidt tells the little known story of how some of the most renowned social scientists of the twentieth century struggled to elevate their emerging disciplines of cultural anthropology sociology and social and clinical psychology Scorned and marginalized in their respective departments in the 1930s for pursuing the controversial theories of Freud and Jung they persuaded Harvard to establish a new department promising to create an interdisciplinary science that would surpass in importance Harvard's big three disciplines of economics government and history Although the Department of Social Relations failed to achieve this audacious goal it nonetheless attracted an outstanding faculty produced important scholarly work and trained many notable graduates At times it was a wild ride Some faculty became notorious for their questionable research Timothy Leary and Richard Alpert reborn as Ram Dass gave the psychedelic drug psilocybin to students while Henry Murray traumatized undergraduate Theodore Kaczynski later the Unabomber in a three year long experiment Central to the story is the obsessive quest of legendary sociologist Talcott Parsons for a single theory unifying the social sciences the white whale to his Captain Ahab All in all Schmidt's lively narrative is an instructive tale of academic infighting hubris and scandal      Sociologists in a Global Age Mathieu Deflem, 2016-04-01 Sixteen leading international sociologists are brought together in this volume to share their experiences of becoming practitioners in the field Selected for their comparative and transnational interests and experiences the contributors include Martin Albrow Karin Knorr Cetina Diane E Davis Pierpaolo Donati Leon Grunberg Horst J Helle Eiko Ikegami Tiankui Jing Hyun Chin Lim Ewa Morawska Richard Münch Saskia Sassen Joachim J Savelsberg Piotr Sztompka Edward A Tiryakian and Ruut Veenhoven Each contributor provides an auto biographical review of their journey into the discipline with special attention paid to the intellectual and social political contexts in which their work matured Each chapter concludes with a commentary on the anticipated future direction of that particular sociological area These original and reflective contributions provide fascinating and rare insights into the careers of sociologists living in a global age

Return from the Natives Peter Mandler, 2013-05-07 DIV Celebrated anthropologist Margaret Mead who studied sex in Samoa and child rearing in New Guinea in the 1920s and 30s was determined to show that anthropology could tackle the psychology of the most complex modern societies in ways useful for waging the Second World War This fascinating book follows Mead and her closest collaborators her lover and mentor Ruth Benedict her third husband Gregory Bateson and her prospective fourth husband Geoffrey Gorer through their triumphant climax when Mead became the cultural ambassador from America to Britain in 1943 to their downfall in the Cold War Part intellectual biography part cultural history and part history of the human sciences Peter Mandler's book is a reminder that the Second World War and the Cold War were a clash of cultures not just ideologies and asks how far intellectuals should involve themselves in politics at a time when Mead's example is cited for and against experts involvement in Iraq and Afghanistan div      Werner Sombart and the 'Spirit' of

Modern Capitalism Christopher Adair-Totter, 2024-03-18 This book illuminates the work of Werner Sombart a key contemporary of Max Weber showing how his writing and thinking laid the groundwork for concepts of modern capitalism Although the notion of the spirit of modern capitalism is most associated with Weber it was Sombart who first used this phrase with Weber focusing mainly on socioeconomics while Sombart continued to develop his ideas around modern capitalism This book critically analyses Sombart's groundbreaking work Der moderne Kapitalismus among his other writings to demonstrate how they may be read as a complementary alternative to Weber providing a more detailed sustained and a comprehensive account of the genesis and nature of modern capitalism This book will be of interest to a scholarly audience including students and researchers of the history of economic thought as well as areas of sociology politics and political economy
