Tale Of Don Lorigal:

The Tale of Don L'Original Antonine Maillet, 2004 Winner of the 1979 Governor General's Award for fiction Antonine Maillet's virtuoso creation The Tale of Don L'Original is now back in print Maillet's tale begins one day not so very long ago but back in the youth of the world when a hay covered island materialized off shore an island populated by fleas who soon took human form The leader of this uncouth crew of have nots Don l Original wore a moose antler crown as his badge of office At his right hand were his brave lieutenants his son Noume and his general Michel Archange The general's wife the doughty charwoman spy and rabble rouser La Sagouine had one finger in every pie and one raised to her neighbour La Sainte The Flea Islanders were constantly at odds with the almost as clever but far more civilized upper crust of the mainland village the mayoress the schoolteacher the merchant the banker When they invaded and tried to steal a keg of molasses the outcome of the mock heroic battle was unclear except that La Sainte's son the hapless young Citrouille and Adeline the merchant's lovely daughter had fallen in love With the insider's accumulation of oral history gossip and shrewd hindsight Antonine Maillet has conjured up a fictional Acadia that her ancestors would relish Perhaps those who could read it would have even understood it she wrote Don l Original in a version of 16th century domestic French that she adapted for modern readers In this far fetched but always entertaining fable Maillet holds up a mirror to Acadian history and to an all too fallible human nature The Tale of Don L'Original Antonine Maillet, 1978 The Tale of Don L'Original, 1989 Agencies in Feminist Translator Studies Elena Castellano-Ortolà, 2024-04-16 This book sets out a new framework for a feminist history of translators drawing on the legacy of Canadian scholar Barbara Godard and her work in establishing the Canadian literary landscape as a means of exploring agency in feminist translation studies and its implications for cross disciplinary debates The volume is organised in three sections establishing feminist translator studies as its own approach examining these dynamics at work in a comprehensive portrait of Barbara Godard's scholarly and literary history and looking ahead to future directions In situating the discussion on Godard and Canadian literary history Elena Castellano calls attention to a geographic context in which translation and its practice has been at the heart of debates around national identity and intersected with the rise of feminism and feminist literary scholarship The book demonstrates how an in depth exploration of the agency of an individual stakeholder whose activities spanned diverse communities and oft conflicting interests can engage in key questions at the intersection of nation making translation and feminism paving the way for future research and the further development of feminist translator studies as methodological framework This book will be of interest to scholars in translation studies feminist literature cultural history and Canadian literature Writing between the Lines Agnes Whitfield, 2006-03-03 The essays in Writing between the Lines explore the lives of twelve of Canada's most eminent anglophone literary translators and delve into how these individuals have contributed to the valuable process of literary exchange between francophone and anglophone literatures in Canada Through individual portraits this book traces the events and life experiences that have led

W H Blake John Glassco Philip Stratford Joyce Marshall Patricia Claxton Doug Jones Sheila Fischman Ray Ellenwood Barbara Godard Susanne de Lotbiniere Harwood John Van Burek and Linda Gaboriau into the complex world of literary translation Each essay portrait examines why they chose to translate and what linguistic and cultural challenges they have faced in the practice of their art Following their relationships with authors and publishers the translators also reveal how they have defined the goals and the process of literary translation Containing original detailed biographical and bibliographical material Writing between the Lines offers many new insights into the literary translation process and the diverse roles of the translator as social agent The first text on Canadian translators it makes a major contribution in the areas of literary translation comparative literature Canadian literature and cultural studies National Literature in Multinational States Albert Braz, Paul D. Morris, 2023-04-13 If literature has often informed the creation of a national imaginary a sense of common history and destiny it has also complicated even challenged the unifying vision assumed in the formation of a national literature and sense of nation National Literature in Multinational States questions the persistent association of literature and nation states contrasting this with the reality of multinational and ethnocultural diversity The contributors to this collection interrogate concepts and manifestations of nationalism in the context of literary production while evaluating the place of national literatures in multinational states at a time when social unity and political agreement have never been more elusive The volume strives for synoptic analysis via the complementary multifaceted treatment of literary creation in several geo cultural contexts Canada the Caribbean Europe India and Nigeria Contributors Sabujkoli Bandopadhyay Albert Braz Matthew Cormier Doris Hambuch Clara A B Joseph Paul D Morris Asma Sayed Matthew T treault Uchechukwu Peter Umezurike Jerry White Literary History of Canada William H.
