Mama Rose's Turn Carolyn Quinn, 2013-10-11 Hers is the show business saga you think you already know but you ain t seen nothin yet Rose Thompson Hovick mother of June Havoc and Gypsy Rose Lee went down in theatrical history as The Stage Mother from Hell after her immortalization on Broadway in Gypsy A Musical Fable Yet the musical was 75 percent fictionalized by playwright Arthur Laurents and condensed for the stage Rose s full story is even more striking Born fearless on the North Dakota prairie in 1891 Rose Thompson had a kind father and a gallivanting mother who sold lacy finery to prostitutes She became an unhappy teenage bride whose marriage yielded two entrancing daughters Louise and June When June was discovered to be a child prodigy in ballet capable of dancing en pointe by the age of three Rose without benefit of any theatrical training set out to create onstage opportunities for her magical baby girl and succeeded Rose followed her own star and created two more in dramatic and colorful style Baby June became a child

headliner in vaudeville and Louise grew up to be the well known burlesque star Gypsy Rose Lee The rest of Mama Rose's remarkable story included love affairs with both men and women the operation of a lesbian pick up joint where she sold homemade bathtub gin wild attempts to extort money from Gypsy and June two stints as a chicken farmer and three allegations of cold blooded murder all of which was deemed unfit for the script of Gypsy Here at last is the rollicking wild saga that never made it to the stage

Gender, Writing, and Performance Helen J. Swift, 2008-02-28 This book explores the poetics of literary defences of women written by men in late medieval and early modern France It fills an important lacuna in studies of this polemic in imaginative literature by bridging the gap between Christine de Pizan and a later generation of women writers and male Neo Platonist writers who have recently all received due critical attention Whereas male authored defences composed between 1440 and 1538 have previously been dismissed as insincere or mere intellectual games Swift formulates reading strategies to overcome such critical stumbling blocks and engage with the particular rhetorical and historical contexts of these works Edited and as yet unedited texts by Martin Le Franc Jacques Milet Pierre Michault and Jean Bouchet catalogues of women allegorical narratives and debate poems are brought together and analysed in detail for the first time in order to explore for example how such works address the misogynistic spectre of Jean de Meun's Roman de la rose The book seeks to understand the contemporary popularity of the case for women la querelle des femmes as literary subject matter It investigates the publication history across this period from manuscript to print of Le Franc's Le Champion des dames Swift further aims to show how these texts hold interest for modern audiences A nexus of theoretical concerns centred on performance Judith Butler's gender performativity Derrida's re-working of Austin's linguistic performativity through spectrality and dramatic performance is enlisted to articulate the interpretative engagement expected by querelle writers of their audience The reading strategies proposed foster a nuanced and enriched perspective on the question of a male author's sincerity when writing in defence of women
