Tales From A Charmed Life A Balinese Painter Reminisces:

Tales From a Charmed Life Hildred Geertz, Ida Bagus Madé Togog, 2005-03-31 As an experiment in ethnographic research and writing and a contribution to our knowledge of Balinese art and tradition Tales from a Charmed Life will be of great interest to historians art historians anthropologists and anyone with a serious interest in Balinese studies Jacket

Tales From a Charmed Life Hildred Geertz, Ida Bagus Madé Togog, 2005-03-31 Tales from a Charmed Life is the last in a trilogy of works by Hildred Geertz exploring the complexity of Balinese history religion and society A landmark study by one of the most distinguished anthropologists of Indonesia it centers around the stories and paintings of Ida Bagus Madé Togog 1913 1989 an artist and ritual specialist who played a significant role in the history of Balinese ethnography In the 1930s Togog was central to Mead and Bateson's pioneering studies of Balinese character and came under the influence of expatriate artists Walter Spies and Rudolf Bonnet to emerge as a major representative of the Batuan style of painting Togog's art and anecdotal stories of his most memorable life experiences are here interwoven with Geertz's illuminating commentary to construct an innovative framework for understanding Balinese culture Togog shares stories of his early life relating dilemmas from his childhood and youth Growing up in the wake of Dutch colonization he came into contact with new languages customs and economic opportunities that presented him with puzzling and poignant experiences He tells of his association with Spies and Bonnet and later Mead and Bateson and his role in the creation of a genre of painting for which Bali is now famous This is a view of Bali from the inside a vivid highly personal look at a world where spirits ancestors and sorcerers have the power to intervene in one's life According to Togog who narrowly escaped death numerous times his was indeed a charmed life The other volumes in the trilogy are The Life of a Balinese Temple Artistry Imagination and History in a Peasant Village 2004 and Images of Power Balinese Paintings Made for Gregory Bateson and Margaret Mead 1994

The Life of a Balinese Temple Hildred Geertz, 2004-06-30 Should a temple be seen as a work of art its carvers as artists its worshipers as art critics and patrons What is a temple and its art to the people who make and use it Noted anthropologist Hildred Geertz attempts to answer these and other questions in this unique look at transformations in material culture and social relations over time in a village temple in Bali Throughout Geertz offers insightful glimpses into what the statues structures and designs of Pura D'sa Batuan convey to those who worship there deepening our understanding of how a village community evaluates workmanship and imagery Following an introduction to the temple and villagers of Batuan Geertz explores the problematics of the Western concept of art as a guiding framework in research She goes on to outline the many different kinds of work ideational as well as physical undertaken in connection with the temple and the social institutions that enable constrain and motivate their creation Finally the art works themselves are presented set within the intricate sociocultural contexts of their making Using the history of Batuan as the main framework for discussing each piece Geertz looks at the carvings from the perspective of their makers each generation occupying a different social situation She confronts concepts such as aesthetics representation sacredness and universality and the dilemmas they create in field research and ethnographic writing Recent temple carvings from the tumultuous and complex period that followed the expulsion of the Dutch and the increasing globalization and commercialization of Balinese society demonstrate yet again that any anthropology of art must also be historical

Storytelling in Bali H. Geertz, 2016-11-01 In Storytelling in Bali Hildred Geertz makes a case for the importance of the role of informal storytelling as an engine of social change in Bali in the 1930s This is a study of more than 200 texts dictated by the painters of the village of Batuan in 1936 to the anthropologist Gregory Bateson It is completed by three years field work in Batuan in the 1980s The tales reveal a set of strong ambivalences about the magical powers of kings priests and sorcerers and about social strains within villages and families These narratives were related in the daily settings of home and coffee shop and also in the spectacular dance dramas of the time

Balinese Art Adrian Vickers, 2012-11-10 Balinese Art is the first comprehensive survey of Balinese painting from its origins in the traditional Balinese village to its present position at the forefront of the high priced Asian art scene Balinese art has been popular and widely collected around the world for many decades In fact the contemporary painter who commands the highest prices in Southeast Asia's hot art market is Bali born Nyoman Masriadi 1973 This book demonstrates that his work draws on a long and deeply rooted tradition of the Bali art scene Balinese painting has deep local roots and has followed its own distinctive trajectory yet has been heavily influenced by outsiders Indian artistic and religious traditions were introduced to Bali over a thousand years ago through the prism of ancient Javanese culture Beyond the world of Indonesian art Balinese artists and craftsmen have also interacted with other Asian artists particularly those of China and later Western artists From these sources an aesthetic tradition developed that depicts stories from the ancient Indian epics as well as themes from Javanese mythology and the religious and communal life of the Balinese themselves Starting with a discussion of the island's aesthetic traditions and how Balinese art should be viewed and understood this book goes on to present pre colonial painting traditions some of which are still practiced in the village of Kamasan the home of classical Balinese art However the main focus is the development of new styles starting in the 1930s and how these gradually evolved in response to the tourist industry that has come to dominate the island Balinese Art acquaints readers with the masterpieces and master artists of Bali and the final chapter presents the most important artists who are active today and serves as an introduction to their work
