Tales From Pigeon Inlet:

Tales from Pigeon Inlet Ted Russell, Elizabeth Russell Miller, 1977-01-01 A Comprehensive Bibliography of English-Canadian Short Stories, 1950-1983, 1988 This bibliography endeavors to record every short story written in English by a Canadian author and first published during the period 1950-1983 and contains 20 000 citations to stories by more than 5 300 authors Organized alphabetically by author's last name it includes references to anthology and story collection appearances by these authors thus providing a complete publishing history of each story cited Hundreds of Canadian periodicals and dozens of anthologies were searched in addition the bibliography cites appearances by Canadian stories in foreign books and periodicals Pathways of Creativity in Contemporary Newfoundland and Labrador María Jesús Hernáez Lerena, 2015-09-18 The Canadian province of Newfoundland and Labrador is a mythologized place that resonates with tragic adventure polar expeditions and Grand Banks fishing a real and imagined geography with an incredible artistic output that calls for critical discussion This book examines the diversity of this province's literature and culture taking into consideration the expertise of scholars and writers who have first hand knowledge of its unique context Chapters on history travel fiction autobiography poetry theatre storytelling filmmaking and the visual arts provide an up to date survey across a broad range of artistic endeavours as well as close readings of selected texts The questions that fill the pages of Pathways of Creativity in Contemporary Newfoundland and Labrador arise from the awareness its contributors have of historically shared experiences but also of shared delusions and their essays provoke contemplation beyond the labels local global Newfoundlander Come From Away Aboriginal histories and writing come to the foreground in this panoramic view that balances descriptions of mainstream vernacular and Indigenous cultural productions The final chapter is organized as a multi voiced interview which serves as a supplement to the academic essays Here themes are revisited and personalized as several writers express their feelings about what it means to be a Newfoundlander and an artist As such this book will encourage dialogue about Newfoundland and Labrador's literary and artistic achievements within the international community of readers and researchers On Record Beverley Diamond, 2021-05-12 Musical media and the audio recording industry have an important and complex history in Newfoundland and Labrador professional musicians community songwriters local institutions and even politicians have gone on record The result is a widespread body of work that undercuts the idea of recorded music as a cultural commodity and deepens the province's tradition of cultural activism Drawing on contemporary testimony and over fifty years of interviews On Record explores how recording projects have served as sonic signatures forms of protest homage or parody of the foibles of those in power Beverley Diamond examines how audio recording in Newfoundland and Labrador has been shaped not merely by creative individuals but by such events as resettlement residential schools the cod moratorium technological change and disasters that have befallen those who live and work on the North Atlantic A chapter by ethnomusicologist and musician Mathias Kom examines the widespread response to a unique annual challenge to make an audio recording Spanning both commercial and community oriented initiatives this book reflects the vibrant socially engaged and resilient nature of communities that value simultaneously and equally the highest professional standards and the creative potential of every citizen Encompassing music from both settler and Indigenous communities On Record redefines the culture of a province that has most often been associated with traditional music demonstrating that recording goes beyond the creation of a commodity it responds to the present and to constructs of public memory

Rewind and Search Mary Jane Miller, 1996-04-15 The first half of Rewind and Search looks at the makers the producers directors writers story editors and actors while the second half deals with the decision makers issues policy and ethos that affect the making of CBC television including drama Miller pays particular attention to the ways in which programs were influenced by evolving audience expectations technological advances and changes in policy personnel and the corporate structure of the CBC With more cutbacks and a change of mandate looming on the horizon the CBC is at a crossroads Rewind and Search reveals the value of television drama as an important part of our Canadian heritage a part that should not be ignored

Turn Up the Contrast Mary Jane Miller, 2011-11-01 From Shakespeare to cop shows sitcoms to docudramas for over three decades the CBC has presented viewers with every variety of television drama and has become Canada's closest equivalent to a national theatre Turn Up the Contrast is the first book to explore the content of Canadian television drama and is both a critical analysis and a survey history of how Canadians have used the medium to tell themselves their own stories As a part of her research Mary Jane Miller watched thousands of hours of television sampling series and viewing in their entirety shorter programs such as movies and mini series Asking a variety of questions she selected a number of programs for detailed analysis and devotees of The Beachcombers King of Kensington Seeing Things Cariboo Country Wojeck or A Gift to Last will be pleased to find their favourites among those discussed at length A University of British Columbia Press CBC Enterprises Co Publication

A Bibliography of Canadian Folklore in English Edith Fowke, Carole Henderson-Carpenter, 1982-12-15 This book is the only comprehensive bibliography of Canadian folklore in English The 3877 different items are arranged by genres folktales folk music and dance folk speech and naming superstitions popular beliefs folk medicine and the supernatural folk life and customs folk art and material culture and within genres by ethnic groups Anglophone and Celtic Francophone Indian and Inuit and other cultural groups The items include reference books periodicals articles records films biographies of scholars and informants and graduate theses Each item is annotated through a coding that indicates whether it is academic or popular its importance to the scholar and whether it is suitable for young people The introduction includes a brief survey of Canadian folklore studies putting this work into academic and social perspective The book covers all the important items and most minor items dealing with Canadian folklore published in English up to the end of 1979 It is concerned with legitimate Canadian folklore whether transplanted from other countries and preserved here or created here to reflect the culture of this country It distinguishes between authentic folklore presented as collected and popular treatments in which the material has been rewritten by the authors. Intended primarily for scholars of folklore international as well as Canadian, the book will also be of use to scholars in anthropology, cultural geography, oral history and other branches of Canadian culture studies as well as to librarians, teachers and the general public. Dictionary of Newfoundland English George Morley Story, W. J. Kirwin, John David Allison Widdowson, 1990-01-01. First published in 1982 to international acclaim, the Dictionary of Newfoundland English introduced the world to an incredibly rich dialect with deep roots in Ireland and the English West Country. Crossroads Country Malcolm MacLeod, 1999. A native of Halifax, Malcolm MacLeod has lived in Newfoundland since the 1970s. He is a past president of the Newfoundland Historical Society and a long time member of the History Department at Memorial University of Newfoundland. Crossroads Country is a collection of life stories from people who grew up in Newfoundland before confederation. It examines the various ties that Newfoundland experienced with Canada, the United States and Great Britain. Stories of communities and friendships, kin networks and education in Newfoundland and abroad are woven into a tapestry of Newfoundland culture of the 1920s, 30s and 40s. Newfoundland Quarterly, 1977. The Poetry of Radio Seán Street, 2013-03-01. This book explores the idea of the poetic in radio and sound as well as the concept of pure sound as poetry, both historically and within a contemporary perspective, examining examples of makers and works internationally. The work examines the development of poetic forms in sound broadcasting historically and geographically through chapters taking narrative themes. It includes primary source material gathered through interviews conducted by the author with distinguished producers and poets. Among these are producers Piers Plowright, Matt Thompson, Alan Hall, Simon Elmes and Julian May, UK; Edwin Brys, Belgium; Hildegard Westerkamp, Germany; Canada's Chris Brookes, Robyn Ravlitch, Michael Ladd and Kaye Mortley, Australia, as well as poets including Michael Symmons Roberts and Jeremy Hooker. There is a chapter on the poetic sound in the natural world which focuses in particular on the work of the renowned UK sound recordist Chris Watson. Alongside audio poetry, the book discusses the spoken word including documentaries and public announcements, the radio feature, soundscapes, sonic art with contributions from key figures such as Colin Black, Australia, and Marcus Leadley, UK, and the poetry of the vernacular in speech and sound. It considers new platforms for listening including podcasts and developments in mobile technologies, examining the work of current practitioners including Francesca Panetta, who is responsible for The Guardian's podcasts as well as the award-winning Hackney Podcast, and Tim Wright. Made-in-Canada Humour Beverly J. Rasporich, 2015-09-15. Made in Canada Humour is an interdisciplinary survey and analysis of Canadian humour and humorists in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. The book focuses on a variety of genres. It includes celebrated Canadian writers and poets with ironic and satiric perspectives, oral storytellers of tall tales in the country and the city, newspaper print humorists, representative national and regional cartoonists and comedians of stage, radio and television. The humour gives voice to Canadian values and experiences and consequently techniques and styles of humour particular to the country While a persistent comic theme has been joking at the expense of the United States both countries have influenced one another s humour Canada s unique humorous tradition also reflects its emergence from a colonial country to a postcolonial and postmodern nation with contemporary humour that addresses gender and racial issues Newfoundland and Labrador English Sandra Clarke,2010-02-28 This book is the first full length volume to offer acomprehensive introduction to the English spoken in Britain s oldestoverseas colony and since 1949 Canada s youngest province Within NorthAmerica Newfoundland and Labrador English is a highly distinctive speechvariety It is known for its generally conservative nature having retainedclose ties with its primary linguistic roots the traditional speech ofsouthwestern England and southern Ireland It is also characterised by ahigh degree of regional and social variation Over the past half century the region has experienced substantial social economic and cultural change This is reflected linguistically as younger generations of Newfoundlandersand Labradorians increasingly align themselves with mainland NorthAmerican norms The volume includes An accessible description of thephonological grammatical lexical and discourse features of thisvariety Treatment of regional speech variation within the province and its historical sources Discussion of the social underpinnings of ongoinglanguage change Language samples from both traditional and contemporaryspeakers A survey of published work on Newfoundland and Labrador Englishfrom earlier centuries to the present day Studies in Newfoundland Folklore
