She and her husband fell deeply in love with the animals and the people they met in the wilds of southern Africa, and the experience changed their lives. They have traveled back every year and lovingly chronicled each experience in detailed letters to Kalpana's sisters in India. The letters follow the daily routine in remote bush camps, covering the details of camp life along with the excitement and thrill of walking safaris, canoe trips, and game drives. One can almost hear the hippos by night and smell the fresh lavender along the path as Tuthill describes the nightly sundowners enjoyed with her beloved husband and details the spectacular views and experiences they shared together. In this poignant set of travel essays, Tuthill depicts the glories of ecotravel and demonstrates how our vacation dollars can be used to help save the continent of Africa. Shooting and Fishing, 1918
