Joanna Herbert,2016-04-22 Using in depth life story interviews and oral history archives this book explores the impact of South Asian migration from the 1950s onwards on both the local white British born population and the migrants themselves Taking Leicester as a main case study identified as a European model of multicultural success Negotiating Boundaries in the City offers a historically grounded analysis of the human experiences of migration Joanna Herbert shows how migration created challenges for both existing residents and newcomers for both male and female migrants and explores how they perceived and negotiated boundaries within the local contexts of their everyday lives She explores the personal and collective narratives of individuals who might not otherwise appear in the historical records highlighting the importance of subjective everyday experiences The stories provide valuable insights into the nature of white ethnicity inter ethnic relations and the gendered nature of experiences and offer rich data lacking in existing theoretical accounts This book provides a radically different story about multicultural Britain and reveals the nuances of modern urban experiences which are lost in prevailing discourses of multiculturalism The Bedtrick

Wendy Doniger,2022-08-22 Somehow I woke up one day and found myself in bed with a stranger Meant literally or figuratively this statement describes one of the best known plots in world mythology and popular storytelling In a tour that runs from Shakespeare to Hollywood and from Abraham Lincoln to Casanova the erudite and irrepressible Wendy Doniger shows us the variety danger and allure of the bedtrick or what it means to wake up with a stranger The Bedtrick brings together hundreds of stories from all over the world from the earliest recorded Hindu and Hebrew texts to the latest item in the Weekly World News to show the hilariously convoluted sexual scrapes that people manage to get themselves into and out of Here you will find wives who accidentally commit adultery with their own husbands You will read Lincoln s truly terrible poem about a bedtrick You will learn that in Hong Kong the film The Crying Game was retitled Oh No My Girlfriend Has a Penis And that President Clinton was not the first man to be identified by an idiosyncratic organ At the bottom of these wonderful stories ancient myths and historical anecdotes lie the dynamics of sex and gender power and identity Why can't people tell the difference in the dark Can love always tell the difference between one lover and another And what kind of truth does sex tell Funny sexy and engaging The Bedtrick is a masterful work of energetic storytelling and dazzling scholarship Give it to your spouse and your lover "There She Is, Miss America" Elwood Watson, Darcy Martin, 2004-08-21 Publisher Description Maithil Women's Tales Coralynn V. Davis, 2014-06-30

Constrained by traditions restricting their movements and speech the Maithil women of Nepal and India have long explored individual and collective life experiences by sharing stories with one another Sometimes fantastical sometimes including a kind of magical realism these tales allow women to build community through a deeply personal and always evolving storytelling form In Maithil Women's Tales Coralynn V Davis examines how these storytellers weave together their own life experiences the hardships and the pleasures with age old themes In so doing Davis demonstrates they harness folk traditions to grapple personally as well as collectively with social values behavioral mores relationships and cosmological questions Each chapter includes stories and excerpts that reveal Maithil women's gift for rich language layered plots and stunning allegory In addition Davis provides ethnographic and personal information that reveal the complexity of women's own lives and includes works painted by Maithil storytellers to illustrate their tales The result is a fascinating study of being and becoming that will resonate for readers in women's and Hindu studies folklore and anthropology Old Wives' Tales and Other Women's Stories Tania Modleski, 1998-11 Alerting readers to a body of recent work that has gone under examined Tania Modleski redraws in Old Wives Tales the perimeter of popular culture A critical analysis of films such as The Ballad of Little Jo The Piano and Dogfight Old Wives Tales also takes up performance autobiographical experience and contemporary social issues to illustrate how women's genres mediate between us and reality Modleski examines the changes occurring in traditional women's genres such as romances and melodrama and explores the phenomenon of female authors and performers who cross dress women that is who are moving into male genres and staking out territory declared off limits by men and by many feminists In Search of the Swan Maiden Barbara Fass Leavy, 1995-07-01 In her compendious study of the folktale of the runaway wife Leavy argues that the contradictory claims of nature and culture are embodied in the legendary figure of the swan maiden a woman torn between the human and bestial worlds The New York Times Book Review This is a study of the meaning of gender as framed by the swan maiden tale a story found in the folklore of virtually every culture The swan maiden is a supernatural woman forced to marry keep house and bear children for a mortal man who holds the key to her imprisonment When she manages to regain this key she escapes to the otherworld never to return These tales have most often been interpreted as depicting exogamous marriages describing the girl from another tribe trapped in a world where she will always be the outsider Barbara Fass Leavy believes that in the societies in which the tale and its variants endured woman was the other the outsider trapped in a society that could never be her own Leavy shows how the tale though rarely explicitly recognized is frequently replayed in modern literature Beautifully written this book reveals the myriad ways in which the folktales of a society reflect its cultural values and particularly how folktales are allegories of gender relations It will interest anyone involved in literary gender and cultural studies      Dark Matter Sheree R.
