Hoppe, 2000 The Holy City begins with a review of the place of Jerusalem in the three Abrahamic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam Each of these is in some way an heir and reinterpreted of the religion of ancient Israel This book proves the place of Jerusalem according to the religious traditions of ancient Israel as preserved in the Old Testament and some early Jewish texts Our City of God Jonathan Brierley, 1907 Cat God's Tales Shen YeFaChou, 2020-04-10 If someone else reincarnated even if they were trash they would still be human Why am I reincarnated as a cat It's fine if I turned into a cat Other people entering the academy to act cool and have a relationship was fine but I became a teacher with my life on the line Furthermore the class I took was the most useless one in the entire academy It's not suitable for me to play the pig to eat the tiger I can only slap my face to make it look fat Everything is as I remember it

Tales of the City of God Carlos Gonzales Valles, 1993 In Tales of the City of God Carlos Valles gleans parables from all times and cultures for consideration by contemporary readers One catches here echoes of the master author of biblical examples Those who have ears let them hear Valles's fables are drawn from both Eastern and Western traditions and each is complemented by Valles's thoughts and reflections Readers may find some of the names and places in these stories foreign but the human weaknesses and troubles will be familiar to all Throughout Tales of the city of God Valles uses his life experience and wisdom to focus our reading of these fables and to help guide us in self reflection A Criminology Of Narrative Fiction Rafe McGregor, 2022-07-12 Drawing on complex narratives across film TV novels and graphic novels this authoritative critical analysis demonstrates the value of fictional narratives as a tool for understanding explaining and reducing crime and social harm McGregor establishes an original theory of the criminological value of fiction Stories for Worship and how to Follow Them Up Hugh Hartshorne, 1921 The City Lord: An Avery Cates Short Story Jeff Somers, 2016-02-14 Cates pursuit of The Pale leads him to the fortified city of Castelvechio where he finally has something

Remaking the Chinese City Joseph W. Esherick,2001-10-31 In China today skyscrapers tower over ancient temples freeways deliver lines of cars and tour buses to imperial palaces cinema houses compete with old theaters featuring Peking Opera The disparity evidenced in the contemporary Chinese cityscape can be traced to the early decades of the twentieth century when government elites sought to transform cities into a new world that would be at once modern and distinctly Chinese Remaking the Chinese City aims to capture the full diversity of recent Chinese urbanism by examining the modernist transformations of China s cities in the first half of the twentieth century Collecting in one place some of the most interesting and exciting new work on Chinese urban history this volume presents thirteen essays discussing ten Chinese cities the commercial and industrial center of Shanghai the old capital Beijing the southern coastal city of Canton the interior s Chengdu the tourist city of Hangzhou the utopian New Capital built in Manchuria during the Japanese occupation the treaty port of Tianjin the Nationalists capital in Nanjing and temporary wartime capitals of Wuhan and Chongqing Unlike past treatments of early twentieth century China which characterize the period as one of failure and decay the contributors to this volume describe an exciting world in constant and fundamental change During this time the Chinese city was remade to accommodate parks and police paved roads and public spaces Rickshaws trolleys and buses allowed the growth of new downtowns Department stores theaters newspapers and modern advertising nourished a new urban identity Sanitary regulations and traffic laws were enforced and modern media and transport permitted unprecedented freedoms Yet despite their fondness for things Western and modern early urban planners envisioned cities that would lead the Chinese nation and preserve Chinese tradition The very desire for modernity led to the construction of a visible and accessible national past and the imagining of a distinctive national future In their investigation of the national capitals of the period the essays show how cities were reshaped to represent and serve the nation To promote tourism traditions were invented and recycled for the pleasure and edification of new middle class and foreign consumers of culture Abundantly illustrated with maps and photographs Remaking the Chinese City presents the best and most current scholarship on modern Chinese cities Its thoroughness and detailed scholarship will appeal to the specialist while its clarity and scope will engage the general reader Contributors Michael Tsin on Canton Ruth Rogaski and Brett Sheehan on Tianjin David Buck on Changchun Kristin Stapleton on Chengdu Liping Wang on Hangzhou Madeleine Dong on Beijing Charles Musgrove on Nanjing Stephen MacKinnon on Wuhan Lee MacIsaac on Chongqing and Jeffrey Wasserstrom and David Strand with concluding essays The Creation-story of Genesis I.
