Stories From Greek Mythology James Wood,2013-05-31 This vintage book contains a fantastic collection of stories taken from Greek mythology Derived partly from the classical originals and partly from excellent versions of them written in German these stories were intended primarily to interest young readers in the wonders of Greek mythology They thus make perfect stories to read to children at bedtime The tales contained herein include Orpheus and Eurydice The Sleep of Endymion The Tale of the Beautiful Psyche Cupid and the Graces Midas The Argonauts Philemon and Baucis and Arethusa Many antiquarian books such as this are increasingly hard to come by and expensive and it is with this in mind that we are republishing this book now in an affordable modern high quality edition It comes complete with a specially commissioned new introduction on greek mythology

Telling Tales in Greek Lorna Robinson, 2017-08-01 I loved Greek myths and stories from a very young age thanks largely to the Usborne Greek Myths and Legends which my parents bought for me and my brother I remember that it contained the most striking images and tales of strange creatures and vengeful gods There was something unearthly and powerful about them something that drew me in and made me want to stay in that world to explore further A ghostly Cerberus a huge minotaur with twisting horns the faces of gods and heroes all these looked out at me from those pages and lured me inside Lorna Robinson Telling Tales in Greek is narrated by the chatty and wily Greek hero Odysseus who introduces readers to some of the best loved stories from Greek mythology Along the way readers pick up Ancient Greece's alphabet and grammar while exploring how Greek myths still speak to us today Soham De's illustrations bring the stories alive for a wide range of learners Telling Tales in Greek contain the vocabulary and grammar needed for the OCR Entry Level Greek qualification making this book the ideal first introduction to Greek The format appeals to a wide range of learners with creative activities that update the stories around contemporary issues from history geography philosophy and literature
