The Evolution of Biological Disarmament Nicholas Roger Alan Sims, 2001 The evolution of the disarmament regime of the 1972 Biological and Toxin Weapons Convention BTWC is described from 1980 when the first BTWC Review Conference was held until 1998 The author analyses the results of our first four review Conferences the meetings of the Ad Hoc Group of Governmental Experts to Identify and Examine Potential Verification Measures from a Scientific and Technical Standpoint the 1994 Special Conference the current negotiations of the Ad Hoc Group to produce an additional protocol the BTWC which may include verification measures handling of the 1997 Cuban allegation of US biological warfare and the implementation of Article X of the BTWC on international transfers and cooperation for peaceful purposes The strength of the BTWC regime is assessed in the light of its evolution through the review process and its changing contents including Russia's admission that it had inherited an offensive biological weapon programme The book applies an original sector by sector approach to its analysis of the BTWC studied in a long term perspective

The Role and Control of Weapons in the 1990s Frank Barnaby, 2021-05-30 This book first published in 1992 examines defence issues as the twentieth century drew to a close With the end of the Cold War many of the threats to European security such as the threat of nuclear war disappeared New ones however were emerging The rise of nationalism the spread of weapons of mass destruction to politically unstable countries the increase in world population the debt crisis all these contributed to security problems that needed to be resolved The book assesses the possibilities for future European defence and the role that the United States would play in it will it be prepared to stay in Europe under European leadership or must it dominate It also considers the capabilities offered by new military technology and the need for control of weapons of mass destruction

Arms Control and Security: The Changing Role of Conventional Arms Control in Europe

Kevin Wright,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 The aim of this text is to explore conventional arms control in Europe The early chapters provide a primarily historical perspective looking at the context foundations main provisions and institutional structure of the main agreements The later chapters explore the continuing and likely future roles of the OSCE and NATO in the arms control process The final chapters examine more contemporary developments by looking at the Adapted CFE Treaty and Vienna Documents agreed at the OSCE Istanbul Summit in November 1998 and the challenges posed to existing arrangements by the changing and emergent security threats that potentially face Europe

Realism versus Global Arms Control and Disarmament

Carmen Chas,2025-07-15 This incisive book explores the limits of international law through arms control and disarmament treaties Carmen Chas critically engages with literature on disarmament and classical realist analysis bridging the divide between international law and international relations scholarship

The Logic of Internationalism

Kjell Goldmann,2002-11-01 Internationalism is the view that institution building and peaceful cooperation will make peace and security prevail in a system of independent states This book examines this controversial topic and discusses whether such a view is realistic or whether international relations are typically characterised by tension and war Kjell Goldmann seeks to examine the plausibility of internationalism under present day conditions A theory of internationalism is outlined and is shown to have two dimensions one coercive to enforce the rules and decisions of international institutions and one accommodative to avoid confrontation by means of mutual understanding and compromise Problematic features of the theory are then considered in detail the assumption that all international cooperation tends to inhibit war and the tension inherent in the joint pursuit of coercion and accommodation

The Chemical Weapons Convention Walter Krutzsch,Eric Myjer,Ralf Trapp,2014-08-07 This book provides an article by article commentary on the text of the Chemical Weapons Convention CWC and its Annexes one of the cornerstone disarmament and arms control agreements It requires the verified elimination of an entire category of weapons of mass destruction and their means of production by all its States Parties within established time lines and that prohibits any activities to develop or otherwise acquire such weapons Cross cutting chapters alongside the detailed commentary by those intimately involved in the development of the Convention assess the history of the efforts to prohibit chemical weapons the adoption of the Convention and the work of the Preparatory Commission the entry into force of the Convention to the Second Review Conference and the need for a new approach for the governance of chemical weapons Written by those involved in its creation and implementation this book critically reviews the practices adopted in implementing the Convention as well as the challenges ahead and provides legal commentary on and guidance for its future role It assesses how to adapt its implementation to advances in science and technology including the discovery of new chemicals and the development of biochemical non lethal compounds that influence behaviour It addresses the legal framework within which the Organization for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons OPCW takes decisions both with regard to the OPCW s own regulatory framework and regarding wider international norms accepted principles and practices The Commentary draws conclusions on how the prohibitions against chemical weapons can be strengthened and the stature of the OPCW protected It highlights the involvement of industry and academia in this prohibition creating a symbiosis between effective governance and the legal framework of the Convention This book is an authoritative scholarly work for anyone interested in the Chemical Weapons Convention in international disarmament and arms control law and in the work of international organizations and a practical guide for individuals and institutions involved in the Convention s day to day implementation Striving for Military Stability in Europe Jane M. O. Sharp, 2010-04-05 First Published in 2004 This new book traces the changing relationship between Russia and NATO through the prism of conventional arms control and focuses on the negotiation implementation and adaptation of the Conventional Armed Forces in Europe CFE Treaty It shows that arms control agreements reflect rather than affect relations between parties The CFE Treaty codified parity between NATO and the Soviet led Warsaw Treaty Organization WTO in November 1990 reflecting the status quo at the end of the cold war The benefits were short lived for Russia however Although still widely viewed in the West as the cornerstone of security and stability in post cold war Europe from the Russian perspective the treaty was soon overtaken by events With the collapse of the WTO and the Soviet Union in 1991 it became impossible to talk of a military balance between east and west in Europe especially as all the former WTO states opted for membership in NATO This study details how the other state parties worked hard to adjust and adapt the treaty to meet Russian concerns about its new weakness relative to NATO and the issues that complicated Russian acceptance of CFE limits This book will be of great interest to all students of Russia NATO European politics international relations and strategic studies in general United States Military Forces and Installations in Europe Simon Duke, 1989 For many people who live in Europe the presence of substantial US military forces is a matter of concern and debate which has tended so far to centre around a few highly visible bases such as the cruise missile locations Apart from these few bases relatively little is known about the size and extent of the US military presence in Europe This book aims to fill that gap by providing the raw data on what is where The study also highlights the historical details behind the acquisition of bases in individual countries and summarizes and analyses all of the basing agreements between the US and its host nations which are available to the public The book a timely contribution to the debate as discussions begin for possible post INF cuts in superpower force levels in Europe there is an urgent need for accurate and unbiased information on US forces in Western Europe and on the massive infrastructure that supports those forces Security Studies Paul D. Williams, 2008-06-03

Security Studies is the most comprehensive textbook available on security studies. It gives students a detailed overview of the major theoretical approaches, key themes, and most significant issues within security studies. Part 1 explores the main theoretical approaches currently used within the field, from realism to international political sociology. Part 2 explains the central concepts underpinning contemporary debates, from the security dilemma to terrorism. Part 3 presents an overview of the institutional security architecture currently influencing world politics, using international, regional, and global levels of analysis. Part 4 examines some of the key contemporary challenges to global security, from the arms trade to energy security. Part 5 discusses the future of security. Security Studies provides a valuable teaching tool for undergraduates and MA students by collecting these related strands of the field together into a single coherent textbook.

Towards a War-free World Joseph Rotblat, 1995. The book focuses on subjects of nuclear disarmament, the reduction and control of conventional weapons, the arms trade, future roles of the UN, regional confidence building, measures of global governance, sustainable use of resources, and ethical challenges in the modern era, all of which related to the ultimate goal of eliminating war.

Chemical and Biological Weapons E. Spiers, 1994-08-16. His previous forays into this subject have made him the Chemical Biological Weapons professionals' author, and this book does nothing to diminish this view. It is also timely. British Army Review. An analysis of the proliferation of chemical and biological weapons, which examines the attractions and utility of these weapons for some developing states, the difficulties encountered in trying to control their spread, and the lessons from the Rabta controversy and the Gulf War. It reviews the evolution of American chemical weapons policy under the Bush administration, the implications of the Chemical Weapons Convention, and the problems posed by the inherently dynamic nature of these weapons and their tactical flexibility.

Security at Sea Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, 1990. Since the Second World War, five navies are known to have acquired nuclear weapons, and naval forces and activities around the world have become increasingly important and dangerous. However, there has been no serious consideration of naval arms control for more than forty years. SIPRI gathered together a group of experts from eight nations to consider the problems of naval forces and the possibilities for arms control. This book is a product of that conference and it presents for the first time a broad and detailed assessment of the dangers of the naval arms race, problems with arms control, possible approaches, confidence building measures, and verification technologies.

The Politics of Ballistic Missile Nonproliferation W. Bowen, 2000-01-20. During the presidency of George Bush (1989-93), the proliferation of nuclear, chemical, and biological weapons, and the ballistic missiles capable of delivering them, rose greatly in significance as issues on the American security agenda. In the missile field, this became evident by the efforts of certain elements in the executive branch and several congressmen to improve domestic and international implementation of the Missile Technology Control Regime. The Politics of Ballistic Missile Nonproliferation examines the political, bureaucratic, and systemic issues that interacted to determine the outcome of these efforts.

The Debt Boomerang Susan George, 2019-07-09. This book examines six major Debt Connections, six ways in which the third world

Debt Boomerang strikes the North as it flies back from the South environmental destruction drugs costs to taxpayers lost jobs and markets immigration pressures and heightened conflict and war

Stopping the Spread of Nuclear Weapons

David Fischer, 2025-05-01 Although in the early 1990s nearly fifty countries had a nuclear capacity and many more were close to it only a handful were actually in possession of nuclear weapons David Fischer's book originally published in 1992 was of particular interest in the light of the collapse of the post war power structure and the intensive militarization in the Middle East at the time addresses the problem of how to prevent the wider acquisition of such weapons Fischer surveys the success of the international regime set up to stop the spread of nuclear weapons since the mid 1960s in particular the fact that since 1968 138 nations had renounced the bomb now up to 190 The strengths and weaknesses of the non proliferation treaty and the reasons the author believes its membership should extend to France and China are discussed as is the 1995 conference that would decide the future of this treaty Evidence is provided of the relationship between the development of nuclear power and the acquisition of nuclear weapons and of the dangers involved in the growing use of plutonium and the building of nuclear submarines The book attempts to provide a detailed and comprehensive view of the ongoing conflict between nuclear deterrence and non proliferation and to look at both the short and long term prospects for non proliferation Today it can be read in its historical context

The Naval Arms Trade

Ian Anthony, 1990 This book offers a sober appraisal of the world trade in naval weapon systems at a time when recent attacks on merchant shipping in the Persian Gulf have kept maritime security at the centre of global attention At the same time India outside the international non proliferation regime has become the first ever customer for a nuclear attack submarine In 1987 88 the most expensive and controversial arms sales were related to naval systems and yet while regional navies are busy increasing their firepower the traditional naval powers remain dependent on their sea borne trade In particular the book highlights critical areas in which trade in naval systems differs from the sale of land or air systems and it discusses the implications of these differences

Limiting the Proliferation of Weapons

Jean-François Rioux, 1992 An international team of arms control experts addresses important questions raised by the use of export sales restrictions in controlling the spread of weapons In non technical language they examine vital issues relating to ballistic missiles as well as to nuclear chemical biological and conventional weapons

Verification of Dual-use Chemicals Under the Chemical Weapons

Convention Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, 1991 In negotiations on the Chemical Weapons Convention delegates have addressed the question of how to verify compliance with those provisions which relate to the production and non production of relevant chemicals In order to facilitate the work of the negotiators the Pugwash movement and SIPRI gave a group of fourteen scientific and other experts on the negotiations the task of analysing how the current Convention provisions would be applied to a specific chemical thiodiglycol This chemical can be used as a precursor to the chemical warfare agent mustard gas In eleven chapters and an annexe the authors present their individual findings illustrated with tables and figures The steering committee of the project have provided summaries in introductory and concluding chapters The particular problems of monitoring thiodiglycol production outlined may serve as a model for monitoring other chemicals which will be covered by the future Chemical Weapons Convention
