Contact in the 16th Century Brad Loewen, Claude Chapdelaine, 2016-05-12 From Labrador to Lake Ontario the Gulf of Saint Lawrence to French Acadia and Huronia Wendaki to Tadoussac and from one chapter to the next this scholarly collection of archaeological findings focuses on 16th century European goods found in Native contexts and within greater networks forming a conceptual interplay of place and mobility The four initial chapters are set around the Gulf of Saint Lawrence where Euro Native contact was direct and the historical record is strongest Contact networks radiated northward into Inuit settings where European iron nails roofing tile fragments and ceramics are found Glass beads are scarce on Inuit sites as well as on Basque sites on the Gulf's north shore but they are numerous in French Acadia Ceramics on northern Basque sites are mostly from Spain An historical review discusses the partnership between Spanish Basques and Saint Lawrence Iroquoians c 1540 1580 The four chapters set in the Saint Lawrence valley show Tadoussac as a fork in inland networks Saint Lawrence Iroquoians obtained glass beads around Tadoussac before 1580 Algonquin from Lac Saint Jean began trading at Tadoussac after that They plied a northern route that linked to Huronia Wendaki via the Ottawa Valley and the Frontenac Uplands Finally four chapters set around Lake Ontario focus on contact between this region and the Saint Lawrence valley Huron Wendat sites around the Kawartha Lakes show an influx of Saint Lawrence trade in the 16th century followed by an immigration wave about 1580 Huron Wendat sites near Toronto show an unabated inflow of Native materials from the Saint Lawrence valley however neutral sites west of Lake Ontario show Native and European materials arriving from the south A review of glass bead evidence presented by various authors shows trends that cut across chapters and bring new impetus to the study of beads to discover 16th century networks among French and Basque fishers Inuit and Algonquian foragers and Iroquoian farmers With contributions from Sara Barreiro Meghan Burchell Claude Chapdelaine Martin S Cooper Amanda Crompton Vincent Delmas Sergio Escribano Ruiz William Fox Sarah Grant Fran ois Guindon Erik Langevin Brad Loewen Jean Fran ois Moreau Jean Luc Pilon Michel Plourde Peter Ramsden Lisa Rankin and Ronald F Williamson Published in English

History of the Native People of Canada, Volume III (A.D. 500 - European Contact) James Vallière Wright, 1996-01-01 Part 1 of the final volume of A History of the Native People of Canada treats eastern Canada and the southern Subarctic regions of the Prairies from A D 500 to European contact It examines the association of archaeological sites with the Native peoples recorded in European documents and particularly the agricultural revolution of the Iroquoian people of the Lower Great Lakes and Upper St Lawrence River Part 2 was never completed as the author passed away Published in English Painting the Past with a Broad Brush David L. Keenlyside, Jean-Luc Pilon, 2009-01-01 For over 50 years J V Wright was a ground breaking leader and inspiring mentor for the Canadian archaeological profession This publication brings together 23 scholarly articles on various aspects of Canada s ancient past that pay tribute to and reflect J V Wright s diverse geographic and cultural interests in relation to Canadian archaeology and pre history This exceptional festschrift includes an annotated bibliography of J V Wright s works Published in English Passion for the Past James Vallière Wright, Jean-Luc Pilon, 2004-01-01 A Passion for the Past celebrates the late archaeologist James F Pendergast The book includes twenty two essays on subjects ranging from archaeological ethnicity to Native perspectives on archaeology and features several texts on the St Lawrence Iroquoians a subject dear to Pendergast s heart Published in English Ibss: Anthropology: 1972 International Committee for Social Science Information and Documentation, 1974-10-24 First published in 1974 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Natives and Newcomers Bruce G. Trigger, 1986 According to convential nineteenth century wisdom societies of European origin were naturally progressive native societies were static One consequence of this attitutde was the almost universal separation of history and anthropology Today despite a growing interest in changes in Amerindian societies this dichotomy continues to distort the investigation of Canadian history and to assign native peoples only a marginal place in it Natives and Newcomers discredits that myth In a spirited and critical re examination of relations between the French and the Iroquoian speaking inhabitants of the St Lawrence lowlands from the incursions of Jacques Cartier through the explorations of Samuel de Champlain and the Jesuit missions into the early years of the royal regime Natives and Newcomers argues that native people have played a significant role in shaping the development of Canada Trigger also shows that the largely ignored French traders and their employees established relations with native people that were indispensable for founding a viable European colony on the St Lawrence The brisk narrative of this period is complemented by a detailed survey of the stereotypes about native people that have influenced the development of Canadian history and anthropology and by candid discussions of how historical ethnographical and archaeological approaches can and cannot be combined to produce a more rounded and accurate understanding of the past

Diversity and Complexity in Prehistoric Maritime Societies Bruce J. Bourque, 2007-09-04 New England archaeology has not always been everyone s cup of tea only late in the Golden of nineteenth century archaeology as archaeology s focus turned westward did a few pioneers look northward as well causing a brief flurry of investigation and excavation Between 1892 and 1894 Charles C Willoughby did some exemplary excavations at three small burial sites in Bucksport Orland and Ellsworth Maine and made some models of that activity for exhibition at the Chicago World s Fair These activities were encouraged by E Putnam director of the Harvard Peabody Museum and head of anthropology at the Columbian Exposition Even earlier another director of the Peabody Jeffries Wyman spawned some real interest in the shellheaps of the Maine coast but that did not last very long Twentieth century New England archaeology specifically in Maine was for its first fifty years rather low key too with short lived but important activity by Arlo and Oric a Bates Harvard student prior to World War Later I another Massachusetts institution the Peabody Foundation at Andover took some minor but responsible steps toward further understanding of the area s prehistoric past

Gabriel Hrynicky, 2022-03-22 The Far Northeast 3000 BP to Contact is the first volume to synthesize archaeological research from across Atlantic Canada and northern New England for the period spanning from 3000 years ago to European contact Recently notions of the Woodland period in the broader Northeast have drawn scrutiny from experts due to increasing awareness that its hallmarks such as horticulture village formation mortuary ceremonialism and the advent of various technologies appear to be less synchronous than once thought By paying particular attention to the Far Northeast and its unique yet sometimes marginal position in Woodland discourse this work offers a much needed in depth look at one of the best documented cases of hunter gatherer persistence and adaptation at the eve of European contact Penned by academic government and cultural resource management archaeologists the seventeen chapters in The Far Northeast 3000 BP to Contact draw on decades of research in considering this period both in terms of variability within the region and integration with broader cultural patterns in the Northeast and beyond

Jacques Cartier Bridge was opened and allowed for the outward expansion of a region which before had been confined to the island. From the Great Depression and Montreal's role as a munitions manufacturing centre during the Second World War to major cultural events like Expo 67 the twentieth century saw Montreal grow into one of the continent's largest cities requiring stringent management of infrastructure, public utilities and transportation. Pour une histoire amérindienne de l'Amérique Georges E. Sioui, 2017-01-23T00:00:00-05:00. Rien n'est plus important pour l'avenir de nos terres que de savoir nos collègues amérindiens prêts et résolus à prendre en main leur anthropologie et leur histoire. L'ouvrage de Sioui en apporte une démonstration très brillante. Claude Lévi Strauss. Pour la première fois un Amérindien esquisse les règles qui devraient s'appliquer à l'étude de l'histoire des autochtones. L'auteur démontre que ces lignes directrices doivent correspondre à l'image que les autochtones ont d'eux-mêmes et leur éthique sociale et qu'elles devraient prévaloir aux relations entre les autochtones et ceux qui ont immigré plus récemment en Amérique. Sioui a donc écrit un ouvrage qui non seulement traite de notre histoire mais qui constitue aussi une réflexion orale. Il est fier d'être Huron et Amérindien et il est pleinement conscient des injustices que son peuple huron et amérindien a subies et continue d'endurer cause des Euro-Américains. Pourtant il reste convaincu que la grandeur amérindienne n'est pas qu'un vestige du passé. L'avenir permettra aux autochtones de jouer un rôle très important en fournissant à l'Amérique du Nord et au reste du monde un modèle de société viable. Extrait de la préface de Bruce G. Trigger.

Pour une autohistoire autochtone de l'Amérique Georges E. Sioui, 2023-09-20T00:00:00-04:00. Le but de l'auteur est de présenter l'histoire elle-même comme une machine par laquelle il se donne la mission de formuler intelligemment et adéquatement si elle doit accomplir la guérison contemplée. Pour ce faire il est impératif de produire la libération de nos concitoyens d'une ignorance chronique et paralysante au regard de l'histoire de leur pays le Canada.
