Situating Globality:

Situating Globality Wim van Binsbergen, Rijk van Dijk, 2004-03-01 Situating Globality challenges the dominant view that globalization is a primary threat to African societies and economies. It explores how these societies are appropriating elements of the emerging global culture, arguing the significance of this appropriation in local struggles, the expression of critical thinking, ideologies and ritual styles of behaviour. Combining an interest for micro level processes of situating the multifaceted process of globality with the exploration of reflexivity, creativity and the production of knowledge, Situating Globality straddles the divide between anthropological and philosophical representations of Africa in the new world order. The first section examines philosophical issues relating to the production of knowledge in and about Africa from a globalizing perspective, while the other sections include case studies showing how these processes are accommodated in everyday life.

Situating Globalization Cynthia Nelson, Shahnaz Rouse, 2015-09-15 The range of perspectives and original materials dealt with by each author highlights the renewed urgency of the struggle for cultural autonomy and voice within the context of globalization. In other words, each paper explores how the various processes at both the local and global level intersect to create new discourses and debates round the indigenization of knowledge. If a new wind of cultural decolonization is blowing through the Arab Middle East which is having profound impact on the lives of men and women, then we should expect a new scholarship to emerge in order to grasp and understand it. This book is a contribution in that direction. Agency and Changing World Views in Africa Dieter Neubert, Christine Scherer, 2014 Current debates on the transnational impact of world views, interpretive frameworks often refer to the concepts of globalization or travelling models with an emphasis on domination or on a process of translation. This volume highlights situations where different world views are confronted with each other within Africa and the question of how the actors mediate between the two. The conceptual chapters foster a critical view on the normative implications of agency itself as well as how they reflect on the claim of interpretive hegemony of human rights, concepts of law, democracy or neoliberalism. In addition, the book examines the confrontation of world views in particular cases. Essays examine distinct empirical grounds such as law, e.g. Islamic law, children's rights, law and development, political ideology and analyze the role of transcendental powers. Series: Contributions to Research on Africa, Beitrage zur Afrikaforschung, Vol. 40. Subject: African Studies, Politics, Human Rights, Law. African Alternatives, 2007-07-30 This collection of articles aims to stimulate the exploration of African initiative and creativity and to go beyond immediate socio-economic and political circumstances by analyzing those initiatives that offer alternatives to the prevailing paradigms. It moves away from African victimhood by stressing African agency and by demonstrating that societies in Africa have always showed the ability to negotiate whatever constraining ecological, economic and political circumstances they faced. This is further detailed in the context of the literary contest between local and global, of issues of land rights and property of livelihoods and poverty of the popular culture of demystifying African migrations, the changing parameters of territoriality.

Pentecostalism and Development D. Freeman, 2012-09-03 Development was founded on the belief that religion was not important to development processes The contributors call this assumption into question and explore the practical impacts of religion by looking at the developmental consequences of Pentecostal Christianity in Africa and by contrasting Pentecostal and secular models of change International Media Studies Divya McMillin, 2009-02-04 International Media Studies is a bold introduction to the field that focuses on a de centering of media epistemology to represent a more thorough world view A comprehensive textbook exploring the current state of media studies as it is being practised across the world Takes discussions about media studies beyond other textbooks by situating the subject firmly in an international context appropriate to the globalized 21st century Surveys our reception of a wide variety of media content and formats including television magazines fiction newspapers and popular music Considers both theoretical and much needed ethnographic perspectives on media studies Showcases global and local media patterns in a variety of countries around the world including examples from Asia Africa and Latin America Religion and AIDS Treatment in Africa Hansjörg Dilger, Thera Rasing, 2016-04-08 This book critically interrogates emerging interconnections between religion and biomedicine in Africa in the era of antiretroviral treatment for AIDS Highlighting the complex relationships between religious ideologies practices and organizations on the one hand and biomedical treatment programmes and the scientific languages and public health institutions that sustain them on the other this anthology charts largely uncovered terrain in the social science study of the AIDS epidemic Spanning different regions of Africa the authors offer unique access to issues at the interface of religion and medical humanitarianism and the manifold therapeutic traditions religious practices and moralities as they co evolve in situations of AIDS treatment

This book also sheds new light on how religious spaces are formed in response to the dilemmas people face with the introduction of life prolonging treatment programmes Advocacy Networks and the Responsibility to Protect Sarka Kolmasova, 2023-02-03 This book contributes to existing debates on the Responsibility to Protect R2P by demonstrating new advocacy strategies and the greater interconnectedness of various R2P proponents In 2021 the UN General Assembly adopted a new resolution on R2P which reaffirmed its commitment from the 2005 World Summit Outcome and put R2P on the annual agenda For many R2P proponents this was another manifestation of worldwide R2P relevance and of growing support among UN members to protect people from genocide war crimes ethnic cleansing and crimes against humanity Yet the existing crises in Myanmar Venezuela Belarus Syria and many others revealed the widening gap between the discourse and practice This book aims to find out what keeps the concept alive despite its indisputable pitfalls In contrast to existing studies that treat the R2P endorsement or contestation as intertwined processes of norm evolution it argues that the status of R2P has been accomplished by the conscious politics of its advocates operating in complex global networks As such the book puts emphasis on the agency of R2P champions and examines who keeps the idea resonating and how they manage to preserve its worldwide relevance Rather than proposing a new model of advocacy the book aims to pinpoint the politics of R2P s circulation the importance of individual R2P champions and their interconnectedness through innovative forms of cooperation within complex networks This book will be of much interest to students of the R2P diplomacy human rights foreign policy and International Relations The Anthropology of Global Pentecostalism and Evangelicalism Simon Coleman, Rosalind I. J. Hackett, 2015-10-09 The phenomenal growth of Pentecostalism and evangelicalism around the world in recent decades has forced us to rethink what it means to be religious and what it means to be global The success of these religious movements has revealed tensions and resonances between the public and the private the religious and the cultural and the local and the global This volume provides a wide ranging and accessible as well as ethnographically rich perspective on what has become a truly global religious trend one that is challenging conventional analytical categories within the social sciences This book informs students and seasoned scholars alike about the character of Pentecostalism and evangelicalism not only as they have spread across the globe but also as they have become global movements Adopting a broadly anthropological approach the chapters synthesize the existing literature on Pentecostalism and evangelicalism even as they offer new analyses and critiques They show how the study of Pentecostalism and evangelicalism provides a fresh way to approach classic anthropological themes they contest the frequent characterization of these movements as conservative religious social and political forces and they argue that Pentecostalism and evangelicalism are significant not least because they encourage us to reflect on the intersections of politics materiality morality and law Ultimately the volume leaves us with a clear sense of the cultural and social power as well as the theoretical significance of forms of Christianity that we can no longer afford to ignore Boundless Faith Robert Wuthnow, 2010-10-12 Robert Wuthnow shows that American

Christianity is increasingly influenced by globalization and is in turn playing a larger role in other countries and in US policies and programmes abroad
