Take Ten Jonathan Hacker, David Price, 1992 When examining the variety of British directors included here the reader will see just how misleading the term British film can be The book places ten contemporary British directors side by side But whilst the reader is able to trace certain common themes comparisons between the characters are actually characterized by a startling degree of diversity of style and opinion British Film Directors Robert Shail, 2007 This concise authoritative volume analyses critically the work of 100 British directors from the innovators of the silent period to contemporary auteurs

Postminimalist Music Keith Potter, Kyle Gann, 2016-03-23 In recent years the music of minimalist composers such as La Monte Young Terry Riley Steve Reich and Philip Glass has increasingly become the subject of important musicological reflection research and debate Scholars have also been turning their attention to the work of lesser known contemporaries such as Phill Niblock and Eliane Radigue or to second and third generation minimalists such as John Adams Louis Andriessen Michael Nyman and William Duckworth whose range of styles may undermine any sense of shared aesthetic approach but whose output is still to a large extent informed by the innovative work of their minimalist predecessors Attempts have also been made by a number of academics to contextualise the work of composers who have moved in parallel with these developments while remaining resolutely outside its immediate environment including such diverse figures as Karel Goeyvaerts Robert Ashley Arvo Pärt and Brian Eno Theory has reflected practice in many respects with the multimedia works of Reich and Glass encouraging interdisciplinary approaches associations and interconnections Minimalism's role in culture and society has also become the subject of recent interest and debate complementing existing scholarship which addressed the subject from the perspective of historiography analysis aesthetics and philosophy The Ashgate Research Companion to Minimalist and Postminimalist Music provides an authoritative overview of established research in this area while also offering new and innovative approaches to the subject

Luminous presence Alexandra Parsons, 2021-11-02 Luminous presence Derek Jarman's life writing is the first book to analyse the prolific writing of queer icon Derek Jarman Although he is well known for his avant garde filmmaking his garden and his AIDS activism he is also the author of over a dozen books many of which are autobiographical Much of Jarman's exploration of post war queer identity and imaginative response to HIV AIDS can be found in his books such as the lyrical AIDS diaries Modern Nature and Smiling in Slow Motion This book fully explores for the first time the remarkable range and depth of Jarman's writing Spanning his career Alexandra Parsons argues that Jarman's self reflexive response to the HIV AIDS crisis was critical in changing the cultural terms of queer representation from the 1980s onwards Luminous presence is of great interest to students scholars and readers of queer histories in literature art and film

Don't Look Now Mark Sanderson, 2019-07-25 Don't Look Now released in 1973 confirmed director Nicolas Roeg as one of the most stylish and innovative British directors of the postwar period Adapted from a short story by Daphne du Maurier it is both a complex study of how people come to terms with grief and a chilling tale of murder set among the canals and churches of Venice Featuring telling performances by Julie Christie and Donald Sutherland as the couple whose daughter has tragically died Don't Look Now depicts the way in which the macabre and the everyday are intertwined In his lucid subtle account Mark Sanderson describes the collaboration between director and actors that sustained the film's emotional richness He returns to du Maurier's original text and to the traditions of Gothic writing that underpin Don't Look Now's combination of horror melodrama and black comedy Sanderson examines the film's intricate visual style uncovering the way in which particular motifs are used to amplify its depiction of two terrible deaths He finds compensation for the film's grimly fatalistic view of life in its celebration of sexual relationships and the power of recollection The book includes an exclusive and in depth interview with Roeg as well as rare and unpublished comments from Christie In his foreword to this special edition published to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the BFI Film Classics series Jason Wood places Don't Look Now in the context of Roeg's film making career and draws upon Roeg's revealing insights into the film's production Peter Greenaway David Pascoe, 1997-11 Peter Greenaway is one of the most distinctive and provocative personalities to emerge in European cinema in the last two decades This extensively illustrated critical study examines Greenaway's vision from a number of perspectives Complicating Articulation in Art Cinema Benedict Morrison, 2021 What is film criticism for This book aims to answer this question It argues that art cinema's political effect is the result of indeterminacy and not character centric meaning The Films of John Schlesinger Julia Prewitt Brown, 2019-08-24 The city with its manifold distractions and violence its invitation to intoxication and dream had long served to represent the experience of modernity in works of art at the time John Schlesinger made his acclaimed urban documentary Terminus in 1961 To be a reader of the city was to be a reader of modern life and Schlesinger was a discriminating at times relentless reader of the city throughout his career especially in his three greatest films Midnight Cowboy Sunday Bloody Sunday and The Day of the Locust set in New York London and Los Angeles respectively His character driven stories evocation of the significance of the everyday and insistence on ambiguities of situation and motive all qualities he was known for point to literary influences that reach back to the nineteenth century and earlier The Films of John Schlesinger is not only the first book to fully acknowledge those influences but also the first book to explicate the power of his art to capture the modern urban experiences of becoming an adult in an atmosphere that relentlessly promotes fantasies of success and wealth of coming to terms with one's national identity in the context of international politics and of attempting to transform the past both personal and cultural into a viable present

Caravaggio Leo Bersani, Ulysse Dutoit, 2021-03-25 Caravaggio 1986 Derek Jarman's portrait of the Italian Baroque artist shows the painter at work with models drawn from Rome's homeless and prostitutes and his relationship with two very different lovers Ranuccio played by Sean Bean and Lena played by Tilda Swinton It is probably the closest Derek Jarman came to a mainstream film And yet the film is a uniquely complex and lucid treatment of Jarman's major concerns violence history homosexuality and the relation between film and painting In particular according to Leo Bersani and Ulysse Dutoit Caravaggio is unlike Jarman's other work in avoiding a sentimentalising of gay relationships and in making no neat distinction between the exercise and the suffering of violence Film making involves a coercive power which for Bersani and Dutoit Jarman may without admitting it to himself have found deeply seductive But in Caravaggio this power is renounced and the result is Jarman's most profound unsettling and astonishing reflection on sexuality and identity Understanding Representation Wendy Helsby, 2019-07-25 This is the third book in the Understanding the Moving Image series Like other books in the series it aims to provide a strong critical and theoretical base for the study of the media It has been co-authored by experienced Media and Film Studies tutors offering fresh and innovative ways of talking about the key concept of representation How is the world mediated to deliver messages and create beliefs about groups such as the mentally ill institutions like the family and schools minority and marginalised people and issues of nation seen through football and films

It also looks outside our ethnocentric mediated world to see how we are represented to others The choice of texts reflects both an attempt to push the boundaries of the study of representation with new research but also to make it accessible and stimulating for students coming into this area for the first time Case studies reflect contemporary concerns in the media often from different perspectives
