Street Animation For Social Change Andreea-Loredana Tudorache, Monica Constantinescu,2010-01-01 You have now in your hands by chance or not a document that brings a new value in what concerns social street campaigning or street arts Why is it so Mainly because it aims at combining these two perspectives and enriching what street animation means by using its social change potential properly This manual is based on the last 3 years of experience of A R T Fusion Association in what concerns street social campaigning and offers every reader the chance to go through a variety of street animation methods to open their curiosity and appetite towards them and more than that to offer an alternative that maybe was not in your mind to practice street animation in order to make a social change in your community Sticky Learning Holly J. Inglis, 2014-11-01 Despite the introduction of new technologies for classrooms many seminary courses still utilize primarily auditory methods to convey content Course outcomes may include opportunities for learners to demonstrate knowledge and skills gained but may not include opportunities for learners to begin to embed knowledge and skills into their long term memory Educators are engaging with neuroscientists to reshape classroom practices content delivery curriculum design and physical classroom spaces to enhance students learning and memory primarily in elementary and secondary education Why not in seminary education An overview of how learning occurs in our brain what the different types of memory are and how memory is created serves as a framework for suggesting pedagogical tools These brain friendly tools are specifically applied to individual academic disciplines enabling instructors to make concrete modifications in the structure and content of what is taught making learning more sticky Inglis s synopsis of the use of neuroscience in the classroom and suggested action is followed by a collaborative dialogue with Kathy L Dawson and Rodger Y Nishioka Dawson and Nishioka provide practical commentary regarding the successful implementation of Inglis s proposed approach As a group Inglis Dawson and Nishioka create a text that extends pedagogical innovation in inspiring but practical ways God in the Modern Wing Cameron J. Anderson, G. Walter Hansen, 2021-10-12 Should Christians even bother with modern art This STA volume gathers the reflections of artists art historians and theologians who collectively offer a more complicated narrative of the history of modern art and its place in the Christian life Readers will find insights on the work and faith of artists like Marc Chagall Jackson Pollock Mark Rothko Andy Warhol and more Artisanal Theology Lisa M. Hess, 2009-01-15 Paradox and surprise face those who pursue deeper spiritual practice theological wisdom and even a religious calling into the ministry Unbeknownst to incoming students the pursuit of theological education in established institutions today furthers a faith that is recognizable in delight and compassion even as it may just as easily deform it into a moral duty and autonomous professionalism so divisive in today s religious ecology How may those drawn into ministry formation today receive its deep theological treasures and sustain a vibrant faith with a theologically expressive delight able to companion the suffering of self and others Artisanal Theology explores the paradoxes and surprises that await those walking in the worlds of theological education the local congregation the academy the tradition denomination Part handbook part witness it offers guidance for the path of intentional formation within contemporary institutions of theological education whose riches may be mined in a disciplined spiritual stewardship and grounded in radically covenantal companionship Just like artisanal bread blends the classical methods of bread baking with modern conveniences so an artisanal theology relies upon the personal and communal touch of human relationship amidst the contemporary forms of programmatic theological education An artisanal theology offers an articulate and traditionally rooted faith perspective grounded in covenantal companionships sustained in contexts of church tradition and most importantly practice Ultimately an artisanal theology witnesses beyond the anticipated political divides to the Triune God among us known in a theologically expressive delight able to companion the suffering of self and others

The Art Teacher's Guide to Exploring Art and Design in the Community Ilona Szekely,2021-09-09 How can community art build connection in diverse communities Where is the art in contemporary libraries How do you bring subway art into the classroom Drawing on an abundance of examples from Finland Italy New Zealand Spain and the USA including the NYC 2nd Ave Subway the Detroit s Heidelberg Project the Favel Painting Foundation and bicycle rack sculpture Szekely inspires readers to look beyond the classroom walls to develop meaningful art experiences for students She shows the myriad art forms media expressions and design professions that have the influence and potential to shape the local environment reaching far beyond the traditional museum and gallery venue Underpinned by a clear philosophical foundation the field tested approaches show readers how to go beyond the study of reproductions or dwelling on of the masters who are framed in art museums instead having meaningful art experiences using everyday objects and diverse collective experiences She also shows that innovative and exciting art lessons don t need large amounts of funding transportation or even a museum within the local community Each chapter includes photographs talking points and key lesson ideas along with links to further resources
