Gender and Sexuality in Ghanaian Societies Martha Donkor, Amoaba Gooden, 2022-09-01 Gender and Sexuality in Ghanaian Societies explores cultural dynamics embedded in the interstices of agency vulnerability and power within patriarchal structures that seek to regulate the sexual lives of women in Ghana Emphasizing the centrality of gender as a motive force for sexual expression the book stresses that contemporary Ghanaian women s sexual expressions are caught at the intersection of traditional gender expectations of heteronormativity and women s perceptions of how heteronormativity should operate in their lives The book s emphasis on women s agency is significant because it highlights a flaw in earlier Western accounts of African women s lives under Africa s special brand of patriarchy that held women in total subjection to men Gender and Sexuality debunks that trope and presents Ghanaian women s dynamism resilience and vulnerabilities embedded in the diverse cultures in which they live second part which focuses on the construction of non heteronormative sexualities in Spanish and Catalan television series the book challenges the rhetoric of normalisation and the essentialist paradigms which have so far dominated the examination of the construction of sexuality in television series As such this book addresses the role performed by television in the construction of meanings which surround gender issues and non heteronormative sexualities This is a timely exercise because gender studies and studies of sexual dissidence are fairly recent fields in Spanish and Catalan academia and television has been largely disregarded especially as far as the analysis of characters and storylines is concerned As a result this book represents a major contribution to these fields in the Spanish and Catalan contexts
