Decline and Reimagination in Cinematic New York Cortland Rankin, 2022-09-02 Decline and Reimagination in Cinematic New York examines the cinematic representation of New York from the mid 1960s through the mid 1980s placing the dominant discourse of urban decline in dialogue with marginal perspectives that reimagine the city along alternative paths as a resilient adaptive and endlessly inspiring place Drawing on mainstream independent documentary and experimental films the book offers a multifaceted account of the power of film to imagine the city's decline and reimagine its potential The book analyzes how filmmakers mobilized derelict space and various articulations of nature as settings and signifiers that decenter traditional understandings of the city to represent New York alternately as a desolate wasteland a hostile wilderness a refuge and playground for outcasts a home to resilient and resourceful communities a studio for artistic experimentation an arcadia conducive to alternative social arrangements and a complex ecosystem This book will be of interest to scholars and students of film studies media studies urban cinema urban studies and eco cinema
