Lee Barnes, 2013-03-01 In the seven stories and novella of Minimal Damage veterans search for dignity in a civilian life that has no need for men who were soldiers Finding themselves psychically scarred in crisis on the fringes of society or in battle with their memories these men are living like warts on America's ass The characters range from the enigmatic Mr K who runs a reality television show and once led an escape from a Korean POW camp to the doomed Billy Debecki who regains his dignity in the last minutes of his life by remembering that he once willingly risked his life to save an enemy soldier In one story a man who was never a soldier finds a path toward reconciliation with his brother a former Marine In another a man recalls becoming a soldier by watching the humanity of a fellow recruit disintegrate in basic training In the novella Snake Boy a homeless Vietnam vet is kidnapped by a snake handling evangelist In proper upstanding lives and lost drifting ones the depth of damage is never immediately apparent for these men In war chance luck and arbitrary timing conspire to determine a soldier's fate As civilians the same uncontrollable forces influence who finds a place in society and who is doomed to keep searching With emotion humor and clarity Barnes creates characters who show us what it is to live with the trauma of having experienced combat The fractured souls and lives of these men remind us that the damage doesn't remain on the battlefield Western Literature Series Killing Me Soufflé Ellie Alexander, 2025-02-25 Another delicious installment in the Bakeshop Series set in Ashland OR Amidst the rocky beaches of the Oregon coast Torte's beloved Sterling and Stephanie have been hired to take over the aging restaurant at the cliffside Whaleshead Resort They're nervous about striking out on their own but excited by the opportunity to put their own spin a new menu From fresh fish caught the very same day to vegan options and handcrafted pastries they're buzzing with ideas

What's even better is that Jules and the team from Torte have come out for opening weekend to cheer them on. Despite some opening night jitters, the dinner is off with a bang. Guests and long-term residents of Whaleshead Resort are eager to taste the young couple's creations. As the tickets begin to line up and guests pile in the front door, Jules and Carlos offer to roll up their sleeves and help in any way they can. Stephanie is taking on every chef's nightmare: a fluffy chocolate soufflé and Sterling is fast at work prepping shrimp linguini and pan-seared halibut when they suddenly hear screaming. Erik Morton, the manager of Whaleshead, and their new boss has taken a fatal fall down the steep and dangerous cliffside trail leading to the beach. Jules and her young protégés quickly realize this was no accident. Now the team will have to juggle the investigation while keeping the restaurant and Steph and Sterling's new jobs from crashing like the waves along the cliffs.

Exiled in an Extraordinary World Lucian A. Tower, 2013-07-18 I began writing song lyrics, then came poetry and short stories some 40 years ago. When I was 10 years old. During the sixties and in high school I had the privilege of meeting Poet Laureate of the United States Mr. Robert Frost. He spoke with me discussing my poetry and my ideas. He told me to keep writing and reading and as I continued I would learn so much more and eventually become a published poet. I have continued writing lyrics, poetry and short stories. I am now 64 years old and I am published. I have always told other poets and writers to keep on writing and learning about the many different styles of the written arts. The way I see writing poetry is a likeness to a photograph of a moment, a dream, a place and a thing, a memory good or not so good. Life comes at us in many different ways, sometimes in many different ways at once. It's the situations that arise, the masks some people wear, the way they talk and rub shoulders with everybody. These things make up the poetry I write. When you sit down and look at life, you'll find it's much bigger than just us. This is poetry, lyric writing, short stories, from the imagination, journalism, and actually all the arts. They are great love affairs with life. I have found all things good in the written arts, even when I'm turned down by an editor. It's all learning and enjoying what you do. So choose a photograph of a moment, a dream, or a situation and then write about it. Create a picture with words of description. I live a simple life as a Disabled Veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps and the Vietnam War. However, I am simply who I am, and I don't try to say I'm someone else. I am a human being who loves the arts. My message to you all whom read this is: KEEP ON WRITING, KEEP ON KEEPING ON.
