The book cover features a traditional Japanese illustration. A blue river flows through a landscape of rolling hills and green trees. In the foreground, a white wooden veranda with a railing extends over a green lawn. Two figures in traditional courtly attire are visible: one is seated on the veranda, and another is lying on the lawn. The lawn is decorated with various patterned items, including a large red and white striped object and a small red object. The background shows a golden-brown hillside with a large green tree and a flowering branch on the right.
