people Along the same lines the story of Betsy Ross's flag tells us nothing about how the Stars and Stripes came to be but does tell us something about what Americans wanted in a founding mother it is no coincidence that the Ross story featuring a traditional woman's role of sewing at home was first told in 1870 one year after Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Susan B Anthony challenged these roles by founding the National Woman Suffrage Association There's another reason these stories spread and that provides another reason to follow their evolution From Dodge City to Deadwood and from Bunker Hill to San Juan Hill and beyond these stories all have one thing in common they are all a lot of fun to read Weird Tales 291 (Summer 1988) Darrell Schweitzer, 1988-06-01 The Summer 1988 issue of Weird Tales showcases the work of Featured Author Tanith Lee and Featured Artist Stephen Fabian who did all the artwork Includes contributions from Morgan Llywelyn Brian Lumley and many more World Stories Retold for Modern Boys and Girls William James Sly, 2019-12-05 In World Stories Retold for Modern Boys and Girls William James Sly masterfully adapts timeless tales from various cultures transforming them into accessible narratives for contemporary young readers Employing a vivid and engaging literary style Sly's prose captures the essence of diverse global folklore while incorporating relatable themes of courage friendship and moral integrity This collection serves not only to entertain but also to educate offering insightful commentary on cultural values and the universal human experience embedded within these classic tales William James Sly a noted educator and storyteller has devoted his career to illuminating the importance of literature in shaping young minds His deep appreciation for folklore and storytelling combined with an understanding of child psychology inspired him to reimagine these traditional narratives for a modern audience Sly's extensive background in teaching and his passion for nurturing curiosity in children drive his desire to spark interest in cultural literacy through this collection reinforcing the belief that storytelling is vital to a child's development This book is highly recommended for parents educators and young readers alike as it provides an engaging gateway into the world of literary heritage Sly's adept retellings will not only entertain but also inspire critical thinking and empathy in the next generation Dive into World Stories Retold for Modern Boys and Girls to explore the rich tapestry of tales that connect us all Tales from Sacred Wind Cratis D. Williams, 2003-03-11 Prior to his death in 1985 Cratis Williams was a leading scholar of and spokesperson for Appalachian life and literature and a pioneer of the Appalachian studies movement Williams was born in a log cabin on Caines Creek Lawrence County Kentucky in 1911 To use his own terms he was a complete mountaineer This book is an edited compilation of Williams' memoirs of his childhood These autobiographical reminiscences often take the form of a folktale with individual titles such as Preacher Lang Gets Drunk and The Double Murder at Sledges Schooled initially in traditional stories and ballads he learned to read by the light of his grandfather's whiskey still and excelled at the local one room school After becoming the first person from Caines Creek to attend and graduate from the county high school in Louisa he taught in one room schools while pursuing his own education He earned both a BA and MA from the University of Kentucky before moving to Appalachian State Teacher's College in 1942 later he earned a Ph D from New York University and then returned to Appalachian State Fantasy Review ,1987 Sequels Janet
