Art, Religion, and Politics in Medieval China Qiang Ning, 2004-01-01 The cave temple complex popularly known as the Dunhuang caves is the world s largest extant repository of Tang Buddhist art Among the best preserved of the Dunhuang caves is the Zhai Family Cave built in 642 It is this remarkable cave temple that forms the focus of Ning Qiang s cross disciplinary exploration of the interrelationship of art religion and politics during the Tang In his careful examination of the paintings and sculptures found there the author combines the historical study of pictures with the pictorial study of history By employing this two fold approach he is able to refer to textual evidence in interpreting the formal features of the cave temple paintings and to employ visual details to fill in the historical gaps inevitably left by text oriented scholars The result is a comprehensive analysis of the visual culture of the period and a vivid description of social life in medieval China and remained hidden until the early 1940s. Once exposed, the early artwork appeared fresh and colorful in comparison with other Tang paintings at Dunhuang. The relatively fine condition of the Zhai Family Cave is crucial to our understanding of the original pictorial program found there and offers a unique opportunity to investigate the visual details of the original paintings and sculptures in the cave. At the same time, the remaining traces of reconstruction and redecoration provide a new perspective on how for over three centuries a wealthy Chinese clan used its familial cave as a political showcase.

Art Religion and Politics in Medieval China: The Dunhuang Cave of the Zhai Family is an in-depth study on the meaning and function of an exemplary Tang memorial cave and an important contribution to studies of Chinese religion, politics, sociology, literature, and folklore, as well as to Chinese art history. — Art of the Korean Renaissance, 1400-1600 Soyoung Lee, JaHyun Kim Haboush, Sunpyo Hong, Chin-Sung Chang, 2009

Austere Luminosity of Chinese Classical Furniture Sarah Handler, 2023-12-22

Chinese classical furniture is esteemed throughout the world for its beauty, functionalism, and influence on contemporary design aesthetics. Sarah Handler's stunningly illustrated volume traces Chinese hardwood furniture from its earliest origins in the Shang dynasty (c. 1500 to c. 1050 B.C.) to the present. She offers a fascinating and poetic view of Chinese furniture as functional sculpture, a fine art alongside the other Chinese arts of calligraphy, architecture, painting, and literature. Handler, a widely respected scholar of Chinese furniture, uses her knowledge of Chinese social, political, and economic history to provide a backdrop for understanding the many nuances of this art form. Drawing on literary and visual evidence from excavated materials, written texts, paintings, prints, and engravings, she discusses how people lived, their notions of hierarchy, and their perceptions of space. Her descriptions of historical developments, such as the shift from mats to chairs, evoke the psychological and sociological ramifications. The invention of a distinctive way to support and contain people and things within the household is one of China's singular contributions, says Handler. With more than three hundred exquisite illustrations, many in color, Handler's comprehensive study reveals the magical totality of Chinese classical furniture from its rich surfaces and shrewd proportions down to the austere soul of art that resides in the hardwood interiors. Austere Luminosity recognizes Chinese classical furniture as one of China's premier arts, unique in the furniture traditions of the world.
