world assignment this time a three month trip to Saturn's moon to write a promotional piece about the harvesting of the Methane lakes on that forbidding world But Simon is a troubled man He's sure his wife is having an affair during his prolonged absences he's bored with his job and unsure where his life is going Simon has stumbled into what was supposed to be a closed session for the Black Hole Bar Writers Group who meet once a month to take part in a short story competition the winner's trophy is a small chunk of meteorite simply termed The Rock As an interesting way to spend his last Earth night and forget his troubles for a few hours this is perfect Simon writes stories too and he's been looking for a set up like this for some time Begrudgingly they let him participate The stories begin and Simon starts taking the competition far more seriously than he intended Each of the bar's denizens tells two stories stories that are variously strange amusing and occasionally downright scary The writers all have their own histories to impart lives crossed by tragedy and drama come tumbling out one by one into the cramped little room and as they do so we the invisible uninvited presence at Simon's side learn more about the background of this future world its wars its governments its strange new customs and social groupings A world which is at the same time recognisable as our possible future but also chilling in its recent past Not far from the spaceport the old capital of London lies deserted abandoned first but not least in the wake of dirty bomb outrages committed by the growing fundamentalist armies who have sworn to topple the Corporate States of the Euro zone and New America As the night progresses personalities clash secrets are disclosed and friendships made And Simon finds himself slowly but surely falling in love But he still has a date with Titan to keep It's getting late very late and he should leave but the competition has yet to conclude Simon's heart tells him to stay but his head says go now before it's too late and you lose everything How will his own tale end
