

A Talisman

*Under a splintered mast,
Torn from the ship and cast
Near her hull,
"A stumbling shepherd found
Embedded in the ground,
A sea-gull
"Of lapis lazuli,
A scarab of the sea,
With wings spread-
"Curling its coral feet,
Parting its beak to greet
Men long dead.*

Talisman Poems:

The Talisman Gerry Eugene, 2024-02-12 The Talisman Gerry Eugene's second volume of selected poems takes us once more to the forests and mountains of the West and to the plains and fields of the Midwest Against this backdrop we encounter images and situations that will long resonate in our minds The poems are a portal to a world of horses childhood cats trout streams friends family grief planting and harvest fear and courage addiction and triumph love and passion wild nights growing up and growing old Eugene's poems celebrate the particularity of image and the musicality of language The pieces in this book span fifty years and Eugene presents his vision in traditional and nontraditional forms and styles

Romantic Poetry Angela Esterhammer, 2002-01-01 Romantic Poetry encompasses twenty seven new essays by prominent scholars on the influences and interrelations among Romantic movements throughout Europe and the Americas It provides an expansive overview of eighteenth and nineteenth century poetry in the European languages The essays take account of interrelated currents in American Argentinian Brazilian Bulgarian Canadian Caribbean Chilean Colombian Croatian Czech Danish English Estonian Finnish French German Greek Hungarian Irish Italian Mexican Norwegian Peruvian Polish Romanian Russian Serbian Slovak Spanish Swedish and Uruguayan literature Contributors adopt different models for comparative study tracing a theme or motif through several literatures developing innovative models of transnational influence studying the role of Romantic poetry in socio political developments or focusing on an issue that appears most prominently in one national literature yet is illuminated by the international context This collaborative volume provides an invaluable resource for students of comparative literature and Romanticism SPECIAL OFFER 30% discount for a complete set order 5 vols The Romanticism series in the Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages is the result of a remarkable international collaboration The editorial team coordinated the efforts of over 100 experts from more than two dozen countries to produce five independently conceived yet interrelated volumes that show not only how Romanticism developed and spread in its principal European homelands and throughout the New World but also the ways in which the affected literatures in reaction to Romanticism have redefined themselves on into Modernism A glance at the index of each volume quickly reveals the extraordinary richness of the series total contents Romantic Irony sets the broader experimental parameters of comparison by concentrating on the myriad expressions of irony as one of the major impulses in the Romantic philosophical and artistic revolution and by combining cross cultural and interdisciplinary studies with special attention also to literatures in less widely diffused language streams Romantic Drama traces creative innovations that deeply altered the understanding of genre at large fed popular imagination through vehicles like the opera and laid the foundations for a modernist theater of the absurd Romantic Poetry demonstrates deep patterns and a sharing of crucial themes of the revolutionary age which underlie the lyrical expression that flourished in so many languages and environments Nonfictional Romantic Prose assists us in coping with the vast array of writings from the personal and intimate sphere to modes of public discourse including Romanticism's own self commentary in theoretical statements on the arts society life the sciences and more Nor are the discursive dimensions of imaginative literature neglected in the closing volume Romantic Prose Fiction where the basic Romantic themes and story types the romance novel novella short story and other narrative forms are considered throughout Europe and the New World This enormous realm is seen not just in terms of Romantic theorizing but in the light of the impact of Romantic ideas and narration on later generations As an aid to readers the introduction to Romantic Prose Fiction explains the relationships among the volumes in the series and carries a listing of their tables of contents in an appendix No other series exists comparable to these volumes which treat the entirety of Romanticism as a cultural happening across the whole breadth of the Old and New Worlds and thus render a complex picture of European spiritual strivings in the late eighteenth and the nineteenth centuries a heritage still very close to our age

Excerpt from The Talisman and Other Poems

Invocation

With no fond sickly thirst for fame I kneel
O goddess of the high born art to thee
Not unto thee with semblance of a zeal
I come O pure and heaven eyed Poesy
Though art to me a spirit and a love
Felt ever from the time when first the earth
In its green beauty and the sky above
Informed my soul with joy too deep for mirth
I was a child of thine before my tongue
Could lisp its infant utterance unto thee
And now albeit from my harp are flung Discordant numbers and the song may be
That which I would not yet I know that thou
The offering will not spurn while unto thee I bow

Notational Experiments in North American Long Poems, 1961-2011

A. J. Carruthers, 2017-01-28

This book is a critical experiment that tracks the literary and poetic uses of musical notation and notational methods in North American long poems from the middle of last century to the contemporary moment

Poets have readily referred to their poems as scores

Yet in this study Carruthers argues that the integration of musical scores in expansive works of this period does more work than previously thought offering both resolution and escape from the demands placed on long poem form

The five case studies on Langston Hughes Armand Schwerner BpNichol Joan Retallack and Anne Waldman offer approaches to reading literary scores in what might be described as a critical stave or a critical fugue of instances

In differing ways musical notation and notational methods impact the form time and sometimes the ethical and political stances of these respective long poems

The Wilds of Poetry David Hinton, 2017-07-25

An exploration of the emerging Western consciousness of how deeply we belong to the wild Cosmos as seen through the lineage of modern America's great avant garde poets

a thrilling journey with today's premier translator of the Chinese classics Henry David Thoreau in The Maine Woods describes a moment on Mount Katahdin when all explanations and assumptions fell away for him and he was confronted with the wonderful inexplicable thusness of things

David Hinton takes that moment as the starting point for his account of a rewilding of consciousness in the West a dawning awareness of our essential oneness with the world around us Because there was no Western vocabulary for this perception it fell to poets to make the first efforts at articulation and those efforts were largely driven by Taoist and Chan Zen Buddhist ideas imported from ancient China Hinton chronicles this rewilding through the lineage of avant garde poetry in twentieth century America from Walt Whitman Ezra Pound and Robinson Jeffers to Gary Snyder W S Merwin and beyond including generous selections of poems that together form a compelling anthology of ecopoetry In his much admired translations Hinton has re created ancient Chinese rivers and mountains poetry as modern American poetry here he reenvisioned modern American poetry as an extension of that ancient Chinese tradition an ecopoetry that weaves consciousness into the Cosmos in radical and fundamental ways The Talisman Poems P. Saint John (Writer of Verse.),1943 Beyond Maximus Anne Day Dewey,2007 Beyond Maximus shows how field poetics influenced the construction of the public voices of five Black Mountain poets Charles Olson Robert Creeley Robert Duncan Denise Levertov and Ed Dorn in order to explain their association in the 1950s and 60s as well as their break up as a result of the political and poetic crises of the Vietnam War era Istanbul Richard Tillinghast,2017-02-15 With its varied and glorious history Istanbul remains one of the world's perennially fascinating cities Richard Tillinghast who first visited Istanbul in the early 1960s and has watched it transform over the decades into a vibrant metropolis explores its rich art and architecture culture cuisine and much more in this book Istanbul was known in Byzantine times as the Queen of Cities and to the Ottoman Turks as the Abode of Felicity Steeped in Istanbul's history Tillinghast takes his readers on a voyage of discovery through this storied cultural hub and he is as comfortable talking about Byzantine mosaics and dervish ceremonies as Iznik ceramics and the imperial mosques His lyrical writing brings Istanbul alive on the page as he accompanies readers to cafés palaces and taverns perfectly conjuring the atmospheric delights sounds and senses of the city Illuminating Istanbul's great buildings with tales that bring Ottoman and Byzantine history to life Tillinghast is adept at discovering both what the city remembers and what it chooses to forget Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson,2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author's career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States Syncopations Jed Rasula,2004-05-18 An analysis of the sustaining vitality behind contemporary American poetry from 1975 to the 2003 these 12 essays examine both exemplary innovators and the social context in which innovation is resisted acclaimed or taken for granted The Anthology of Black Mountain College Poetry Blake Hobby,Alessandro

Porco, Joseph Bathanti, 2025-02-05 Founded in 1933 near Asheville North Carolina Black Mountain College fostered experimentation and interdisciplinary learning placing the arts at the heart of its curriculum As such the college was home to and served as inspiration for many modern and postmodern American poets Some of them including Charles Olson Robert Creeley and Denise Levertov appeared in Donald Allen s groundbreaking New American Poetry anthology published in 1960 later becoming part of the American poetry canon However many writers affiliated with Black Mountain College have been overlooked The Anthology of Black Mountain College Poetry features over fifty poets selected with an expansive historical and critical lens including those not typically considered as poets such as composer John Cage architect Buckminster Fuller and visual artist Josef Albers Many years in the making this book presents the clearest picture of the poetry and poetics of Black Mountain College yet Alexander Pushkin A. D. P. Briggs, 1983-01-01 A clear detailed and accessible account of all Pushkin s poetry
