Talking About Difference Encounters In Culture Language And Identity:

Talking about Difference Carl E. James, Adrienne Lynn Shadd, 1994 Identity and Second Language Learning
Miguel Mantero, 2006-12-01 This collection of research has attempted to capture the essence and promise embodied in the concept of identity and built a bridge to the realm of second language studies However the reader will notice that we did not build just one link This volume brings to light the diversity of research in identity and second language studies that are grounded the notions of community instructors and students language immersion and study abroad pop culture and music religion code switching and media The chapters reflect the efforts of contributors from Canada Japan Norway New Zealand the United Arab Emirates and the United States who performed their research in the countries just mentioned and in other regions around the world Because of this this volume truly offers an international perspective Critical Perspectives on Politics and Socio-Economic Development in Ghana, 2003-04-01 This volume provides a comprehensive and integrated analysis of Ghanaian politics economy and society outlining tensions dilemmas and prospects that the country has to contend with The chapters critically examine the performance and prospects of democratic institutions and processes responses to and impact of economic policies and programs and how culture intersects with the preceding developments to shape socio economic and political institutions and practices The collection is divided into four thematic sections Politics the State and Democratic Consolidation Economic Crisis and Neo Liberal Reforms Responses and Implications Indigenous Institutions and the Shaping of Development Culture Indigenous Knowledge and Development It combines rich recent empirical material with sophisticated theoretical analyses and brings unique interdisciplinary perspectives to bear on the issues examined Contributors include Bruce J Berman Joseph R A Ayee Wisdom J Tettey Senyo Adjibolosoo Korba P Puplampu Peter Arthur Edna D Djokoto Asem Kobena T Hanson Baffour K Takyi Isaac Addai Donald I Ray Louis Awanyo Charlotte Kesson Smith Henry M Codjoe George J Sefa Dei and Kwamena Kwansah Aidoo Inculturalism: Meaning and Identity Daniel Boswell, Roger O'Shea, Efrat Tzadik, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 In the contemporary era the subject of interculturalism is common in academic discussion however these questions of diversity and integration remain vague and in many cases the terminology is unconsolidated as its linguistic root culture remains equally ambiguous As part of the Diversity and Recognition hub the Inter Disiplinary Net project leading to this volume brought together researchers from different disciplines to explore how these issues affect meaning and identity Researchers from Australia Turkey Canada Finland Russia United States of America Belgium South Africa China United Kingdom Ukraine Romania Scotland Barbados Ireland Germany Slovenia Poland and Spain presented arguments and maintained discourse on a wide array of topics emerging from interculturalism and the development of new meanings and identities The African Diaspora in Canada Wisdom Tettey, Korbla P. Puplampu, 2005 This book addresses the conceptual difficulties and political contestations surrounding the applicability of the term African Canadian In the midst of this contested terrain the volume focuses on first generation Black Continental Africans who have immigrated to Canada in the last four decades and have traceable genealogical links to the continent

Black Girlhood and Identity in Canadian Elementary Schools Natasha Burford, 2024-11-15 This volume uses interviews and narratives data from self identified Black women reflecting on their childhood in the Canadian public school system to explore voice and agency girlhood and identity in Canada s elementary schools Exploring themes of race gender identity friendship dreams authority and success the author showcases diversity in Black Canadian feminism and gives voice and agency to Black female stories that have traditionally been absent amongst the literary canon of education An intimate and compelling scholarly exploration it contributes to conversations around transforming the Black girl narrative in public education and will appeal to researchers faculty and post graduate students with interests in race and ethnicity in education gender studies and multicultural education

Reflections on Equity, Diversity, and Schooling Maria A. Pacino, 2008 Equity diversity and social justice are the values to which global democracies aspire These elements have strong implications for our children and their schools They are truly timely issues for all educators The experiences of the author as a teacher mother and immigrant are woven throughout the text This work is a compilation of essays that address the issues of schooling in relationship to diversity and literacy in pluralistic democracies The essays offer theoretical perspectives suggestions for practice and useful resources to ensure an equitable education for all children This book encourages educators to reflect on their role as agents of change in schools and advocates of social justice

Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke, 2017-06-22 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature s distinguishing characteristics argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies and critiques several of its key creators and texts Scholarly and sophisticated the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr Alexis Dionne Brand Austin Clarke Claire Harris and M Nourbese Philip In so doing Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism liberalism and conservatism These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa African America and the Caribbean In addition to the essays Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts literature and criticism from both English and French Canada This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora

of essays explores the often antagonistic relationship between women and political life in Canada While women make up little over half of the total population in Canada they are in many ways conspicuous by their absence from the Canadian political scene Published in English Voices from the Classroom York University (Toronto, Ont.). Centre for the Support of Teaching, 2001-01-01 Published Under the Garamond Imprint The voices in this book reflect the broad diversity of a large urban university community with contributions from undergraduate and graduate students teaching assistants contract and full time faculty staff and administrators Issues of equity diversity and power form the foundation of this community s thinking about pedagogy and the topics span a continuum from the theoretical to the practical Voices from the Classroom will have a broad appeal to the university teaching community across North America facing common challenges in the twenty first century Perspectives on Racism and the Human Services Sector Carl E. James, 1996-01-01 Today s social services agencies are faced with the challenge of responding to the diverse needs and expectations of a growing multicultural population This volume examines race and racism in Canada from historical and contemporary perspectives and explores the extent to which these factors operate within social services systems related to immigration settlement the justice system health and education The contributors including practitioners educators and policy makers argue for specific changes in current approaches to service delivery and provide practical suggestions for services that make it possible for various communities to be served more effectively The collection also proposes an anti racism approach to service provision to produce a system that is beneficial to all Canadians particularly Aboriginals and racial and ethnic minorities Seeking the Common Dreams between the Worlds Yan Wang, Yali Zhao, 2013-06-01 This is the first book that probes the lived experiences of Chinese immigrant faculty in North American higher education institutions their struggles challenges successes etc It explores how their past experiences in China have shaped who they are now what they do and how they pursue their teaching research and service as well as the reality of their everyday life that inevitably intertwines with their present and past diverse cultural backgrounds and unique experiences Different from previous books that explore immigrant minority faculty defined ambiguously and broadly and from the theoretical framework of ethnic relations this book has a particular focus on mainland Chinese immigrant faculty which offers a richer and deeper understanding of their cross culture experiences through autoethnographic research and by multiple lenses Through authors vivid portray of the ebbs and flows of their life in the academe readers will gain an enjoyable and holistic knowledge of the cultural political linguistic scholarly and personal issues contemporary Chinese immigrant faculty encounter as they cross the border of multiple worlds All contributors to this book had the experience of being the first generation Chinese immigrants and they either are currently teaching or used to teach in North American higher education institutions who were born brought up educated in Mainland China and came to North America for graduate degrees from early 1980s to 2000 Integrative Antiracism Edith P. Samuel, 2005-01-01 From both a theoretical and practical standpoint racism is one of the most important topics that has engaged the attention of social scientists in North America in recent years As societies become more ethnically diverse people from different cultures are increasingly coming into contact with each other resulting in ever greater opportunities for racism to manifest itself In this work Edith Samuel examines the educational experiences of South Asian students and faculty members from the perspective of integrative antiracism the study of how the dynamics of social difference are mediated in people s daily lives Specifically she analyses perceptions of and responses to racism in four critical areas faculty student relationships peer group interactions curriculum and the psychosocial dimension Antiracism scholars maintain that racism is widespread on Canadian university campuses Drawing on the available literature and extensive interviews with students and faculty Samuel looks at both overt and covert forms of racism as well as structural racism that results in discrimination in admissions and employment She also looks at race class gender history and culture and how these interlocking systems produce unique experiences of racism for South Asians in academe Through the exploration of the intricate patterns of South Asians assimilation into university life Integrative Antiracism identifies the numerous barriers racial minorities encounter and suggests a variety of approaches to fostering a more equitable education system Shared Waters Stella Borg Barthet,2009

Politics in the Vernacular Will Kymlicka,2001-01-19 This volume brings together eighteen of Will Kymlicka s recent essays on nationalism multiculturalism and citizenship These essays expand on the well known theory of minority rights first developed in his Multicultural Citizenship In these new essays Kymlicka applies his theory to several pressing controversies regarding ethnic relations today responds to some of his critics and situates the debate over minority rights within the larger context of issues of nationalism democratic citizenship and globalization The essays are divided into four sections The first section summarizes the state of the debate over minority rights and explains how the debate has evolved over the past 15 years The second section explores the requirements of ethnocultural justice in a liberal democracy Kymlicka argues that the protection of individual human rights is insufficient to ensure justice between ethnocultural groups and that minority rights must supplement human rights In particular Kymlicka explores why some form of power sharing such as federalism is often required to ensure justice for national minorities why indigenous peoples have distinctive rights relating to economic development and environmental protection and why we need to define fairer terms of integration for immigrants The third section focuses on nationalism Kymlicka discusses some of the familiar misinterpretations and preconceptions which liberals have about nationalism and defends the need to recognize that there are genuinely liberal forms of nationalism He discusses the familiar but misleading contrast between cosmopolitanism and nationalism and discusses why liberals have gradually moved towards a position that combines elements of both The final section explores how these increasing demands by ethnic and national groups for minority rights affect the practice of democratic citizenship Kymlicka surveys recent theories of citizenship and raises questions about how they are challenged by ethnocultural diversity He emphasizes the importance of education as a site of conflict between demands for accommodating ethnocultural diversity and demands for promoting the common virtues and loyalties required by democratic citizenship And finally he explores the extent to which globalization requires us to think about citizenship in more global terms or whether citizenship will remain tied to national institutions and political processes Taken together these essays make a major contribution to enriching our understanding of the theory and practice of ethnocultural relations in Western democracies

We Still Here Charity Marsh, Mark V. Campbell, 2020-10-22

We Still Here maps the edges of hip hop culture and makes sense of the rich and diverse ways people create and engage with hip hop music within Canadian borders Contributors to the collection explore the power of institutions mainstream hegemonies and the processes of historical formation in the evolution of hip hop culture Throughout the volume foregrounds the generative issues of gender identity and power in particular in relation to the Black diaspora and Indigenous cultures The contributions of artists in the scene are front and centre in this collection exposing the distinct inner mechanics of Canadian hip hop from a variety of perspectives By amplifying rarely heard voices within hip hop culture We Still Here argues for its power to disrupt national formations and highlights the people and communities who make hip hop happen

Theorising Social Exclusion

Ann Taket, Beth R. Crisp, Annemarie Nevill, Greer Lamaro, Melissa Graham, Sarah Barter-Godfrey, 2009-09-10 This book works from a multidisciplinary approach across health welfare and education linking practice and research in order to improve our understanding of the processes and principles that foster social exclusion and how to prevent it Canada & Its Americas Winfried Siemerling, Sarah Phillips Casteel, 2010 In the last few decades Canadian and Quebecois literatures have been catapulted onto the global stage gaining international readership and recognition Canada and Its Americas challenges the convention that study of this literature should be limited to its place within national borders arguing that these works should be examined from the perspective of their place and influence within the Americas as a whole The essays in this volume a groundbreaking work in the burgeoning field of hemispheric American studies expand the horizons of Canadian and Quebecois literatures suggest alternative approaches to models centred on the United States and analyse the risks and benefits of hemispheric approaches to Canada and Quebec Revealing the connections among a broad range of Canadian Quebecois American Caribbean Latin American and diasporic literatures the contributors critique the neglect of Canadian works in Hemispheric studies and show how such writing can be successfully integrated into an emerging area of literary inquiry

In Search of a Safe Place Vijay Agnew, 1998-01-01 Marginalized in the larger society and the mainstream women's movement immigrant women are also outsiders in women's shelters where racially sensitive and linguistically appropriate counselling is generally unavailable In this book Vijay Agnew documents the struggles of Canadian women's centres to provide better services to victims of wife abuse from Asia Africa and the Caribbean The study looks at every aspect of community based women's organizations including their funding operation and services The result is a detailed picture of the problems and challenges they encounter on a daily basis Agnew uses case studies reports and interviews to document the work of these groups and to show how race class and gender intersect in the everyday lives of the women who depend on them Although the women's movement initiated public discussion of wife abuse the fight against abuse is now conducted primarily by the state through its allocation of resources Agnew underscores the tension that often arises between the patriarchal state and feminist inspired organizations and the resulting difficulties in bringing about social change
