Augustine and the Fundamentalist's Daughter Margaret R Miles, 2012-01-26 In Augustine and the Fundamentalist's Daughter Margaret Miles weaves her memoirs together with reflections on Augustine's Confessions Having read and reread Augustine's Confessions in admiration as well as frustration over the past thirty five years Miles brings her memories of childhood and youth in a fundamentalist home into conversation with Augustine's effort to understand his life The result is a fascinating work of autobiographical and theological reflection Moreover this project brings together a rare combination of insights into fundamentalist convictions and habits of mind as well as into the differences among fundamentalists Such reflections are especially urgent in this time in which fundamentalism is prominent in political and social discourse

Kate & Frida Kim Fay, 2025-03-11 INSTANT USA TODAY BESTSELLER A highly original heart warming story of an extraordinary friendship Amy Poeppel Award Winning author of The Sweet Spot From the author of instant national bestseller Love Saffron this bright and comforting novel follows the surprising friendship between two young women in 1990s Seattle and Paris illuminating the power of books to change our lives Sometimes a book can change your life Twentysomething Frida Rodriguez arrives in Paris in 1991 relishing the city's butter soaked cuisine and seeking her future as a war correspondent But then she writes to a bookshop in Seattle and receives more than just the book she requests A friendship begins that will redefine the person she wants to become Seattle bookseller Kate Fair is transformed by Frida's free spirit spurred to believe in herself as a writer to kiss her handsome coworker and to find beauty even in loss Through the most tumultuous years of their young lives personally and globally Kate and Frida sustain and nourish each other as they learn the necessity of embracing joy especially through our darkest hours This mouthwatering oasis of a novel is a love letter to bookshops and booksellers to the passion we bring to life in our twenties and to the last precious years before the internet changed everything

Through the Window, Out the Door Janis P. Stout, 2020-11-10 This informative and provocative study focuses on the centrality of departure in the texts of five major American women novelists An important moment in many novels and poems by American women writers occurs when a central character looks out a window or walks out the door of a house These acts of departure serve to convey such values as the rejection of constraining social patterns the search for individual fulfillment and the entry into the political Janis Stout examines such moments and related patterns of venture and travel in the fiction of five major American novelists of the 20th century Mary Austin Willa Cather Anne Tyler Toni Morrison and Joan Didion Stout views these five writers within a spectrum of narrative engagements with issues of home and departure a spectrum anchored at one end by Sarah Orne Jewett and at the other by Marilynne Robinson whose Housekeeping posits a vision of female transience Through the Window Out the Door ranges over an expansive territory Moving between texts as well as between texts and contexts Stout shows how women writers have envisioned the walls of physical and social structures including genres as permeable boundaries drawing on both a rhetoric of liberation and a rhetoric of domesticity to construct narrative arguments for women's right to move freely between the two Stout concludes with a personal essay on the dilemmas of domesticity and the ambivalence of departure
