mistreatment of non white cultures and races sexism and fear Clearly it is time for a new story Bill Phipps takes on the task of outlining the core themes of this new story with the passion and vision of a modern day prophet He shows us the deeply spiritual nature of the issues and choices that confront us Recognizing that the challenges we face are inherently interconnected and can no longer be treated in isolation from each other his approach is multi faceted touching on all aspects of life including the role of the arts in bringing about transformation As a culture and as a society we do indeed stand at a crossroads one of those rare grace moments when we are granted the opportunity to choose our future So the question remains before us Will we choose the way of death or the way of new life Cause for Hope is part warning cry part visionary exploration part encouragement for the journey As such it is itself a cause for hope Each chapter concludes with questions for discussion making this book a valuable resource for study group use Learning and Teaching Community-Based Research Catherine Etmanski, Budd L. Hall, Teresa Dawson, 2014-02-24 Community Based Research or CBR is a mix of innovative participatory approaches that put the community at the heart of the research process Learning and Teaching Community Based Research shows that CBR can also operate as an innovative pedagogical practice engaging community members research experts and students This collection is an unmatched source of information on the theory and practice of using CBR in a variety of university and community based educational settings Developed at and around the University of Victoria and with numerous examples of Indigenous led and Indigenous focused approaches to CBR Learning and Teaching Community Based Research will be of interest to those involved in community outreach experiential learning and research in non university settings as well as all those interested in the study of teaching and learning Around the Sacred Fire J. Treat, 2016-04-30 Around the Sacred Fire is a compelling cultural history of intertribal activism centered on the Indian Ecumenical Conference an influential movement among native people in Canada and the U S during the Red Power era Founded in 1969 the Conference began as an attempt at organizing grassroots spiritual leaders who were concerned about the conflict between tribal and Christian traditions throughout Indian country By the mid seventies thousands of people were gathering each summer in the foothills of the Rockies where they participated in weeklong encampments promoting spiritual revitalization and religious self determination Most historical overviews of native affairs in the sixties and seventies emphasize the prominence of the American Indian Movement and the impact of highly publicized confrontations such as the Northwest Coast fish ins the Alcatraz occupation and events at Wounded Knee The Indian Ecumenical Conference played a central role in stimulating cultural revival among native people partly because Conference leaders strategized for social change in ways that differed from the militant groups Drawing on archival records published accounts oral histories and field research James Treat has written the first comprehensive study of this important but overlooked effort at postcolonial interreligious dialogue The Bowl with One Spoon: The American empire and the fourth world Tony Hall, 2003 How should citizens of the world respond to the emergence of the United States as the planet s sole superpower and the military commercial and cultural centre of a new kind of global empire This question poses the central dilemma of our time How can we elaborate a global rule of law based on principles of equality and democracy when the world s most powerful polity seemingly acknowledges no higher authority in the international arena than its own domestic priorities For Anthony Hall the answer lies in the concept of the Fourth World an inclusive intellectual tent covering a wide range of movements whose leaders have sought to implement alternative visions of globalization to those that have prevailed since the Columbian conquests began in 1492 Its basic principles include recognition of the inherent rights of all peoples to self determination and an enlightened embrace of the ecology of biocultural diversity role of the United States began at its founding The Royal Proclamation of 1763 which offered a qualified recognition of Aboriginal and treaty rights infuriated many Anglo American colonists Their resulting sense of grievance was articulated in the Declaration of Independence which proclaims the inalienable rights of all men even as it accuses King George III of having endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers the merciless Indian savages The United States has never faced let alone resolved this fundamental contradiction in its founding document This failure manifested itself in the lawlessness and militarism that characterized US treatment of Indigenous peoples in the most formative phase of the country s frontier expansionism The exclusion of savages from the republic s founding ideals of human equality came increasingly to permeate US foreign policy culminating in the ethnic and religious prejudices colouring the so called War on Terrorism policies toward Aboriginals that have done much to shape the interconnected histories of the United States Canada Latin America South Africa Australia New Zealand and many other countries
