Soundtrack from Saturday Night Fever Clinton Walker,2024-08-08 Saturday Night Fever is simultaneously one of the biggest selling albums of all time and one of the most reviled How can a record create such a polarizing reaction Australian writer Clinton Walker attempts to answer that question and finds that among other things a certain seemingly unlikely Australianness is part of the reason Fever was a supernova for disco for the Bee Gees for the domineering Robert Stigwood producer of the film and its true auteur and for the entire record business This book traces all the interdependent convolutions that fed into the film and its music not least the Australian roots that Stigwood and Gibb brothers shared which gave them an Otherness and almost gormless shape shifting self determination and it finds that sometimes great art can be made by a committee that sometimes five songs are enough to change the world

study of the rich and diverse range of musical responses to Shakespeare that have taken place from the seventeenth century onwards. Written from a literary perspective, the book explores the many genres and contexts in which Shakespeare and his work have enjoyed a musical afterlife, discussing opera, ballet and classical symphony alongside musicals and film soundtracks as well as folk music and hip hop traditions. Taking as its starting point ideas of creativity and improvisation stemming from early modern baroque practices and the more recent example of twentieth century jazz adaptation, this volume explores the many ways in which Shakespeares plays and poems have been re-worked by musical composers. It also places these cultural productions in their own historical moment and context. Adaptation studies is a fast emerging field of scholarship and as a contribution to this field, Shakespeare and Music: Afterlives and Borrowings develops theories and practices from adaptation studies to think about musical responses to Shakespeare across the centuries, bringing together in an exciting intellectual encounter ideas and methodologies deriving from literary criticism, theatre history, film studies and musicology. It explores music in its widest context, looking at classical symphonies including the work of Berlioz and Elgar and operas by Verdi and Britten as well as Broadway musicals, film scores by Shostakovich, Walton and contemporary performers and the jazz adaptations of Duke Ellington and others. This is a timely study that will appeal to a wide readership, from lovers of Shakespeare and classical music through to students of film and historians of the theatre.

The Bulletin, 1976-07. Australian Dictionary of Biography, Volume 19. Melanie Nolan, 2021-03-09. Volume 19 of the Australian Dictionary of Biography (ADB) contains concise biographies of individuals who died between 1991 and 1995. The first of two volumes for the 1990s, it presents a colourful montage of late twentieth century Australian life, containing the biographies of significant and representative Australians. The volume is still in the shadow of World War II, with servicemen and women who enlisted young appearing, but these influences are dimming and there are now increasing numbers of non-white, non-male, non-privileged and non-straight subjects. The 680 individuals recorded in volume 19 of the ADB include Wiradjuri midwife and Nggunawal Elder Violet Bulger, Aboriginal rights activist, poet, playwright and artist Kevin Gilbert, and Torres Strait Islander community leader and land rights campaigner Eddie Mabo. HIV/AIDS child activists Tony Lovegrove and Eve Van Grafhorst have entries, as does conductor Stuart Challender, the first Australian celebrity to go public about his HIV/AIDS condition in 1991. The arts are as always well represented, including writers Frank Hardy, Mary Durack and Nene Gare, actors Frank Thring and Leonard Teale, and arts patron Ian Potter. We are beginning to see the effects of the steep rise in postwar immigration, flowing through to the ADB. Artist Joseph Stanislaw Ostojka, Kotkowski, was born in Poland. Pilar Moreno de Otaegui co-founded the Spanish Club of Sydney. Chinese restaurateur and community leader Ming Poon Dick Low migrated to Victoria in 1953. Often we have a dearth of information about the domestic lives of our subjects politician Olive Zakharov however bravely disclosed at the Victorian launch of the federal government's campaign to Stop Violence Against Women in 1993 that she was a survivor of domestic violence in her second marriage Take a dip into the many fascinating lives of the Australian Dictionary of Biography
