Dunning, 2009-05-12 This book analyzes representative works of African American fiction, film, and music in which interracial desire appears in the context of same-sex desire. In close readings of these texts, Stefanie K. Dunning explores the ways in which the interracial intersects with queerness, blackness, whiteness, class, and black national identity. She shows that representations of interracial desire do not follow the logic of racial exclusion. Instead, they are metaphorical and anti-biological. Rather than diluting race, interracial desire makes race visible. By invoking the interracial, black, gay, and lesbian artists can remake our conception of blackness. Electronica, Dance and Club Music Mark J.
