Transported by Song Caroline Bithell, 2007-05-25 The traditions of the Mediterranean island of Corsica have been well preserved and revitalized yet little has been written about it in scholarly circles This work represents the first treatise on Corsican music in the English language Transported by Song Corsican Voices from Oral Tradition to World Stage chronicles the evolution of Corsican music from the early 20th century to the present charting its progression from the world of oral tradition to a vibrant new performance culture maintained by an expanding cohort of cosmopolitan players Drawing on extensive fieldwork comprehensive interviewing and close observation of Corsican affairs author Caroline Bithell maps out the social cultural economic and political climate of Corsica in the 20th and early 21st centuries offering insights into the way French cultural policy decentralization legislation and EU funding structures have impacted musical activity on the island Key issues are explored through case studies of Corsican performing groups allowing the reader to appreciate the musicians inspirations and intentions their ability to balance local and cosmopolitan frames of reference and the relation of their new output to traditional idioms and procedures The book also offers new perspectives on debates about music and ethnicity and gender dynamics and explores the use of modern technology in an oral idiom and the psycho physiological and transcendental experiences associated with polyphonic singing Well researched and comprehensively written Transported by Song also includes musical transcriptions a glossary discography filmography and bibliography

Immersed in Paradise Tom Conway, Tom Conway Sr., 2009-12 Immersed in Paradise is the story of a beautiful young woman torn between love and an ambition to serve humanity Her relationship with her high school sweet heart had endured even though they were separated during college and after graduation three months before September 11 2001 they each found jobs in law enforcement in Washington All went well for two years until Chuck accepted an appointment to become a Federal Agent at Fort Story Reluctant to be separated but not ready for marriage she requested a transfer to work in Norfolk and secured unpaid leave to attend a language school in Costa Rica to think things over during his training While in Central America she traveled extensively bonded with her host family and disappointed several male admirers She worked with disadvantaged children sometimes with heart rending results and was overwhelmed by the impact of poverty on them and those she saw while traveling When her visa expired she returned home with a greater appreciation of her life and would forever cherish her memories of the surrogate family of charismatic Italians who had taken her into their home and their hearts
