The Place Economy - Volume 3 Andrew Hoyne, 2023-06-05 As a project undertaken before during and in the aftermath of a global pandemic The Place Economy Volume 3 represents an increased appreciation of our need as humans for place and community Spanning 80 plus stories featuring the work of more than 100 global experts you will find a celebration of the people places and ideas that make cities great alongside close examination of the barriers and challenges still facing communities in Australia and abroad As with Volume 1 and 2 every story here presents compelling evidence of the better return on investment that occurs for developers and communities alike when insightful placemaking underpins a vision

Writing Home Glenn Morrison, 2017-01-30 Writing Home explores the literary representation of Australian places by those who have walked them In particular it examines how Aboriginal and settler narratives of walking have shaped portrayals of Australia's Red Centre and consequently ideas of nation and belonging Central Australia has long been characterised as a frontier the supposed divide between black and white ancient and modern But persistently representing it in this way is preventing Australians from reimagining this internationally significant region as home Writing Home argues that the frontier no longer adequately describes Central Australia and that the Aboriginal songlines make a significant but under acknowledged contribution to Australian discourses of hybridity belonging and home Drawing on anthropology cultural theory journalism politics and philosophy the book traces shifting perceptions of Australian place and space since precolonial times through six recounted walking journeys of the Red Centre
