Sons And Lovers:

Sons and Lovers David Herbert Lawrence, 1968 Paul Morel a painter from a British working class family is unable to choose between his possessive mother and two young beautiful women Sons and Lovers D. H. Lawrence, 2021-01-08 The marriage of Gertrude and Walter Morel has become a battleground Repelled by her uneducated and sometimes violent husband delicate Gertrude devotes her life to her children especially to her sons William and Paul determined they will not follow their father into working down the coal mines But conflict is evitable when Paul seeks to escape his mother's suffocating grasp through relationships with women his own age Set in Lawrence's native Nottinghamshire Sons and Lovers is a highly autobiographical and compelling portrayal of childhood adolescence and the clash of generations Sons and Lovers D. H. Lawrence, 2013-05-09 Sons and Lovers is a 1913 novel by the English writer D H Lawrence The Modern Library placed it ninth on their list of the 100 best novels of the 20th century While the novel initially incited a lukewarm critical reception along with allegations of obscenity it is today regarded as a masterpiece by many critics and is often regarded as Lawrence's finest achievement The third published novel of D H Lawrence taken by many to be his earliest masterpiece tells the story of Paul Morel a young man and budding artist Richard Aldington explains the semi autobiographical nature of this masterpiece When you have experienced Sons and Lovers you have lived through the agonies of the young Lawrence striving to win free from his old life Generally it is not only considered as an evocative portrayal of working class life in a mining community but also an intense study of family class and early sexual relationships The refined daughter of a good old burgher family Gertrude Coppard meets a rough hewn miner at a Christmas dance and falls into a whirlwind romance characterized by physical passion But soon after her marriage to Walter Morel she realizes the difficulties of living off his meagre salary in a rented house The couple fight and drift apart and Walter retreats to the pub after work each day Gradually Mrs Morel's affections shift to her sons beginning with the oldest William As a boy William is so attached to his mother that he doesn't enjoy the fair without her As he grows older he defends her against his father's occasional violence Eventually he leaves their Nottinghamshire home for a job in London where he begins to rise up into the middle class He is engaged but he detests the girl's superficiality He dies and Mrs Morel is heartbroken but when Paul catches pneumonia she rediscovers her love for her second son Part II Both repulsed by and drawn to his mother Paul is afraid to leave her but wants to go out on his own and needs to experience love Gradually he falls into a relationship with Miriam a farm girl who attends his church The two take long walks and have intellectual conversations about books but Paul resists in part because his mother looks down on her At Miriam's family's farm Paul meets Clara Dawes a young woman with apparently feminist sympathies who has separated from her husband Baxter Paul leaves Miriam behind as he grows more intimate with Clara but even she cannot hold him and he returns to his mother When his mother dies soon after he is alone Lawrence summarized the plot in a letter to Edward Garnett on 12 November 1912 It follows this idea a woman of character and refinement goes into the lower class and has no satisfaction in her own life She has had a passion for her husband so her children are born of passion and have heaps of vitality But as her sons grow up she selects them as lovers first the eldest then the second These sons are urged into life by their reciprocal love of their mother urged on and on But when they come to manhood they can't love because their mother is the strongest power in their lives and holds them It's rather like Goethe and his mother and Frau von Stein and Christiana As soon as the young men come into contact with women there's a split William gives his sex to a fribble and his mother holds his soul But the split kills him because he doesn't know where he is The next son gets a woman who fights for his soul fights his mother The son loves his mother all the sons hate and are jealous of the father The battle goes on between the mother and the girl with the son as object The mother gradually proves stronger because of the ties of blood The son decides to leave his soul in his mother's hands and like his elder brother goes for passion He gets passion Then the split begins to tell again

Sons and Lovers David Herbert Lawrence, 1913 Lawrence's first major novel was also the first in the English language to explore ordinary working class life from the inside No writer before or since has written so well about the intimacies enforced by a tightly knit mining community and by a family where feelings are never hidden for long Paul Morel is caught between his need for family and community and his efforts to define himself sexually and emotionally Lawrence's powerful description of Paul's relationships makes this a novel as much for the beginning of the twenty-first century as it was for the beginning of the twentieth

Lawrence, 1959 Sons and Lovers D.H. Lawrence, 1985-08-01 Since its publication in 1913 D.H. Lawrence's powerful and passionate third novel stands as one of the greatest autobiographical novels of the twentieth century Here is the story of artist Paul Morel as a young man his powerful relationship with his possessive mother his passionate love affair with Miriam Leivers his intense liaison with married Clara Dawes Here too England's Derbyshire springs to life with both its sooty mining villages and deep green pastures a setting as full of contrasts as the deep emotions that rule this remarkable book Sons and Lovers is rich with universal truths about relationships moreover it brims with what Alfred Kazin has called Lawrence's magic sympathy between himself and life Continues Mr Kazin No other writer of his imaginative standing has in our time written books that are so open to life Since for Lawrence the great subject of literature was not the writer's own consciousness but consciousness between people the living felt relationship between them it was his very concern to represent the shimmer of life the wholeness that made possible his brilliance as a novelist With an Introduction by John Gross
