L. Kroeber, 2023-11-15 This title compiles influential essays by Alfred Kroeber written in the last decade of his life reflecting his deep exploration of human culture civilization and history through an anthropological lens Curated by Milton Singer and Theodora Kroeber this collection showcases Kroeber s unique perspective on the intersections of anthropology history and the humanities Rather than focusing solely on ethnology or linguistic analysis Kroeber broadens his scope to address questions about style civilization patterns and the historical continuity of cultures His view of anthropology as a young evolving science with ancient philosophical roots demonstrates his belief in the discipline's role in understanding human progress. The volume aims to engage both historians and anthropologists by presenting Kroeber's reflections on culture and the human condition especially for a generation of scholars and students whose approach to anthropology is less historically oriented. Kroeber's personal approach to his field developed over a lifetime of teaching and exploring anthropological themes such as Culture Growth emphasizes the evolving nature of culture as an aggregate that shapes civilizations and values. By tracing Kroeber's intellectual journey the book underscores the importance of historical context in anthropology positioning it as a field capable of enriching broader humanistic inquiries and advancing our understanding of civilization's aesthetic ethical and structural evolution. This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology. This title was originally published in 1963.

Vladimir Sorokin's Discourses Dirk Uffelmann, 2020-04-21

Vladimir Sorokin is the most prominent and the most controversial contemporary Russian writer. Having emerged as a prose writer in Moscow's artistic underground in the late 1970s and early 80s he became visible to a broader Russian audience only in the mid 1990s with texts shocking the moralistic expectations of traditionally minded readers by violating not only Soviet ideological taboos but also injecting vulgar language sex and violence into plots that the postmodernist Sorokin borrowed from nineteenth century literature and Socialist Realism. Sorokin became famous when the Putin youth organization burned his books in 2002 and he picked up neo nationalist and neo imperialist discourses in his dystopian novels of the 2000s and 2010s making him one of the fiercest critics of Russia's new middle ages while remaining steadfast in his dismantling of foreign discourses.

Rethinking Civilizational Analysis Said Amir Arjomand, Edward A Tiryakian, 2004-06-09 At last a volume on civilization that truly reflects the complexity of multiple civilizations The wealth of contributions Arjomand and Tiryakian have assembled demonstrates the value of an old concept for understanding the awful dilemmas confronting human kind in the global age Its thoroughgoing renewal here establishes this book as the essential benchmark for future scholars of civilization Martin Albrow Founding Editor of International Sociology and author of The Global Age winner of the European Amalfi Prize 1997 In our tension filled world many are heralding and others fearing a clash of civilizations The contributors to this volume provides a healthy and persuasive argument about why this clash need not and certainly should not take place They do so moreover not by rejecting the concept of civilization but by developing a less primordial homogenous and essentialist concept of it An important collection that provides illumination in this sometimes frighteningly dark time Jeffrey Alexander Professor and Chair of Sociology at Yale University The concept of civilization may well replace the notions of globalization and identity as the core component in the vocabulary of 21st century sociology The authors contribute a great deal to the clarification of fashionable controversies around the clash of civilizations and multiculturalism They go a long way toward purging the concept of civilization of its ideological overtones and they succeed admirably in turning it into powerful analytic tool of an emerging field of macrosociology known already as civilizational analysis Piotr Sztompka President International Sociological Association Although the concept of civilization has deep roots in the social sciences there is an urgent need to re think it for contemporary times This book points to an exhaustion in using the nation state and world system as the basic macro units of social analysis because they do not get to grips with the soft power variable of cultural factors involved in global aspects of development Also globalization requires us to reconsider the link between civilization and a fixed or given territory This book focuses upon the dynamic aspect of civilizations Among the topics covered are Civilizational analysis and social theory Global civilization and local cultures Civilizational forms Rationalization and Civilization Civilizations as zones of prestige Historical and comparative dimensions of civilization The clash of civilizations
