The Seduction of Pessimism in the Novel Tom Ribitzky,2024-10-18 The Seduction of Pessimism in the Novel Eros Failure and the Quarrel with Philosophy explores the novel as a response to the Platonic myth that narrates the rift at the core of our being Eros is supposedly the consolation for this rift but the history of the novel documents its expression as one of frustrated desires neuroses anxieties and cosmic doom As if repeating the trauma from that original split in Plato a split that also divides philosophy from literature the novel treats eros as a site of loss and grief from the medieval romances to Goethe Bront Proust Mann Woolf Lawrence and Nabokov The pessimism that emerges from this eros tells us something fundamental about who we are something that only the novel can say At a time when both education and leisure are increasingly ignoring the novel s imperative to sit with ambiguity complexity and contingency and as we are hurtling toward a bleak future of climate catastrophe and political instability the novel is one of the last bastions of humanity even as it is quickly being eroded

Romanticism and the Emotions Joel Faflak, Richard C. Sha, 2014-03-13 There has recently been a resurgence of interest in the importance of the emotions in Romantic literature and thought This collection the first to stress the centrality of the emotions to Romanticism addresses a complex range of issues including the relation of affect to figuration and knowing emotions and the discipline of knowledge the motivational powers of emotion and emotions as a shared ground of meaning Contributors offer significant new insights on the ways in which a wide range of Romantic writers including Jane Austen William Wordsworth Immanuel Kant Lord Byron Mary and Percy Bysshe Shelley Thomas De Quincey and Adam Smith worried about the emotions as a register of human experience Though varied in scope the essays are united by the argument that the current affective and emotional turn in the humanities benefits from a Romantic scepticism about the relations between language emotion and agency Veritatis Amicitiaeque Causa Anna Lydia Motto, John R. Clark, Shannon N. Byrne, Edmund P.
