The Soul of France Reuben Saillens, 1916

The Soul of John Brown Stephen Graham, 1920

Although Charles Lynch of Virginia used to suspend British farmers by their thumbs until they cried out Liberty for ever and lynching has continued ever since America is nevertheless at bottom free or at least was intended to be so by the idealists and politicians who brought her forth America is a living reproof of Europe and it has been generally conceived of as a land where men should suffer no encroachment upon their personal liberty where they should reap duly the fruits of their labors where no man should sap their rugged independence or infringe upon the sovereign equality of their social rights where government should be entirely by consent of the governed not handed down from above as from superior beings or masters but controlled from below from the broad base of toiling humanity

Wisdom for the Soul of Black Folk Roderick Terry, 2007

Another book of quotations Indeed there are numerous excellent extant anthologies of quotations but these tend to be very broad with a bias toward classical and well known authors those works which document the contributions of Black authors have tended to focus on African Americans considerable as their output is Undeniable recognition of this prevalence is reflected in the title of the present volume which pays homage to W E B Du Bois classic work and in the preponderance of entries from American sources Nevertheless effort has been made to cast a wider net to capture under represented and unfamiliar voices Khemetic texts preserved in papyri and stelae are the earliest literature to have survived followed by the writings of North African Romans and Ethiopian philosophers and clerics and the lately recovered Timbuktu manuscripts from their repositories in the desert sands of Mali The Transatlantic slave experience gave rise to the slave narratives and abolitionist literature from both sides of the Atlantic which remained predominant right up to the 20th century Post Emancipation under colonial rule and white domination Black poetry and prose emerged adhering to prevailing standards evidenced typically in the work of Phillis Wheatley and the sonnets of Claude McKay With the Civil Rights and Black Power movements would come iconoclastic expressions of protest and identity There is a sizeable body of literature by Black authors from Africa and the diaspora who speak to universal values and eternal verities This anthology of their work focuses on the inner life on personal development and self actualization 3000 quotations have been selected to inspire enlighten and encourage they have been arranged in 200 psycho spiritual categories and in chronological order The resulting timeline of thought in itself is useful and instructive as it demonstrates very clearly the evolution of consciousness evident in the contemporary thinking on particular subjects Like its predecessor Wisdom for the Soul Five Millennia of Prescriptions for Spiritual Healing this volume contains a full biographical index and bibliographical references Much of the material is anthologized here for the first time

The Soul of a University Chris Brink, 2018-07-01 What is the role of a university in society In this innovative book Chris Brink offers the timely reminder that it should have social purpose as well as achieve academic excellence The current obsession with rankings and league tables has perpetuated inequality and is preventing social mobility This book shows how universities can and should respond to societal challenges and promote positive social change

The Lure of Africa Cornelius Howard Patton, 1917
