Young, 2014-01-09 Why do we value music Many people report that listening to music is one of life's most rewarding activities In Critique of Pure Music James O Young seeks to explain why this is so Formalists tell us that music is appreciated as pure contentless form On this view listeners receive pleasure or a pleasurable musical emotion when they explore the abstract patterns found in music Music formalists believe does not arouse ordinary emotions such as joy melancholy or fear nor can it represent emotion or provide psychological insight Young holds that formalists are wrong on all counts Drawing upon the latest psychological research he argues that music is expressive of emotion by resembling human expressive behaviour By resembling human expressive behaviour music is able to arouse ordinary emotions in listeners This in turn makes possible the representation of emotion by music The representation of emotion in music gives music the capacity to provide psychological insight into the emotional lives of composers and the emotional lives of individuals from a variety of times and places And it is this capacity of music to provide psychological insight which explains a good deal of the value of music both vocal and purely instrumental Without it music could not be experienced as profound Philosophers psychologists musicians musicologists and music lovers will all find something of interest in this book "Music and the Performance of Identity on Marie-Galante, French Antilles " Ron Emoff, 2017-07-05 Marie Galante is a small island situated in the Caribbean to the south of Guadeloupe The majority of Marie Galantais are descendants of the slave era though a few French settlers also occupy the island Along with its neighbours Guadeloupe and Martinique Marie Galante forms an official department of France Marie Galante historically has never been an independent polity Marie Galantais express sentiments of being deux fois colonis or twice colonized concomitant with their sense of insularity from a global organization of place Dr Ron Emoff translates this pervasive sense of displacement into the concept of the non nation Musical practices on the island provide Marie Galantais with a means of re connecting with other significant distant places Many Marie Galantais display a split subjectivity embracing an African heritage a French association and a Caribbean regionalism This book is unique in part with regard to its treatment of a particular mode of self consciousness expressed musically on a virtually forgotten Caribbean island The book also combines literary narrative historical and musical sources to theorize a postcolonial surreal in the
