The Truth of the Gospel Gerhard Ebeling, 2007-01-01

In this intensive exegesis of the Epistle to the Galatians renowned German theologian Gerhard Ebeling strives to open our eyes to the explosive force that produced this text a force which through this text can explode over and over again Using rigorous technical tools Ebeling interprets Galatians in such a way that the truth of the Gospel confronts the general reader as well as the specialist He clarifies and emphasizes the relevance of this explication to the real life struggles of contemporary

The Structure of Second Corinthians Kei Hiramatsu, 2023-09-07

Hiramatsu Kei examines the literary structure of 2 Corinthians and how it can illuminate understanding of this Pauline letter and its theological message He explores the theoretical foundations of Inductive Bible Study as an approach which focuses on the meaning of biblical texts in their final form by incorporating insights from multifarious methodologies Based on the final form of the letter and its compositional unity he prioritizes the literary context as consequential evidence for interpretation Hiramatsu argues that there are two major components of the literary structure the division of the letter and the identification of major structural relationships within and between the divided parts Thus he proposes that 2 Corinthians consists of seven major segments which coherently develop Paul's discourse pertaining to ministry and discusses the implications regarding his theology of theocentric ministry and that of weakness that arise from a literary investigation Hiramatsu demonstrates that an inductive and integrative approach not only presents a more suitable and helpful literary structure for 2 Corinthians but also illustrates the relevance of such study when seeking to gain understanding of the theological implications of the letter 1 Corinthians

(Brazos Theological Commentary on the Bible) Kimlyn J. Bender, 2022-11-08 The Brazos Theological Commentary on the Bible advances the assumption that the Nicene creedal tradition in all its diversity provides the proper basis for the interpretation of the Bible as Christian scripture The series volumes written by leading theologians encourage readers to explore how the vital roots of the ancient Christian tradition inform and shape faithfulness today In this addition to the series respected theologian Kimlyn Bender offers a theological reading of 1 Corinthians As with other volumes in the series this commentary is designed to serve the church providing a rich resource for preachers teachers students and study groups It demonstrates the continuing intellectual and practical viability of theological interpretation of the Bible The Church in the Movement of the Spirit William R. Barr, 1994

A collection of seven essays exploring how the Spirit moves in an amazing variety of ways through the church's life and witness Based on a four year study by the Faith and Order Working Group of the National Council of Churches this volume offers an ecumenical view of the Spirit at work in the church and of the wider movement of the Spirit in creation and in human history From the Gospel to the Gospels Petr Pokorný, 2013-01-30 The monograph is devoted to a crucial point of Christian theology its development from the short formulae of the gospel euangelion as the first reflected expressions of Christian faith to the theology of literary Gospels as texts that evoked the idea of Christian canon as a counterpart of the Law and Prophets In the formulae of the oral gospel the apocalyptic expectations are adapted into a doubled or split eschatology The Messiah has appeared but the messianic reign is still the object of expectation The experience with Jesus post Easter impact has been named as resurrection of which God was the subject Since the apocalyptic resurrection applied for many or all people the resurrection of Jesus became a guarantee of hope The last chapters analyze the role of the oral gospel in shaping the earliest literary Gospel Mark This book analyses Gospels as texts that re introduced Jesus traditions into the Christian liturgy and literature Concluding paragraphs are devoted to the titles of the individual Gospels and to the origins of the idea of Christian canon

The God Who Is with Us Benjamin H. Kim, 2022-10-21 Contemporary theologies of mission rely on the central concept of the missio Dei which states that mission properly belongs to the triune God over the church However present accounts fail to establish any corresponding link between God s trinitarian economy and ontology In other words the problem of the missio Dei is the problem of the break between the act and being of God Benjamin H Kim argues that a repair is needed for missio Dei theology and this repair is found in reexamining Barth s doctrine of revelation In doing so the locus of mission moves from God s trinitarian sending to his trinitarian revealing The repair is further advanced by Dietrich Bonhoeffer through his concept of person which functions as the unity of act and being This account returns mission to its original definition which was intended to describe the inner trinitarian being of God in relation to humanity The concept of person recovers this meaning of mission by locating it first in the person of Christ and second in the collective person of the church existing as the Christ community Thus Bonhoeffer s description of revelation in terms of personhood provides an account that is more faithful to the missio Dei s core insights
