The Green Line:

The Green Line Robert C. Army. Royal North Lancashire Regiment, 1921 Greening in the Red Zone Keith G. Tidball, Marianne E. Krasny, 2013-07-22 Creation and access to green spaces promotes individual human health especially in therapeutic contexts among those suffering traumatic events But what of the role of access to green space and the act of creating and caring for such places in promoting social health and well being Greening in the Red Zone asserts that creation and access to green spaces confers resilience and recovery in systems disrupted by violent conflict or disaster This edited volume provides evidence for this assertion through cases and examples The contributors to this volume use a variety of research and policy frameworks to explore how creation and access to green spaces in extreme situations might contribute to resistance recovery and resilience of social ecological systems Nakba Ahmad H. Sa'di, Lila Abu-Lughod, 2007-04-10 For outside observers current events in Israel Gaza and the West Bank are seldom related to the collective memory of ordinary Palestinians But for Palestinians themselves the iniquities of the present are experienced as a continuous replay of the injustice of the past By focusing on memories of the Nakba or catastrophe of 1948 in which hundreds of thousands of Palestinians were dispossessed to create the state of Israel the contributors to this volume illuminate the contemporary Palestinian experience and clarify the moral claims they make for justice and redress The book's essays consider the ways in which Palestinians have remembered and organized themselves around the Nakba a central trauma that continues to be refracted through Palestinian personal and collective memory Analyzing oral histories and written narratives poetry and cinema personal testimony and courtroom evidence the authors show how the continuing experience of violence displacement and occupation have transformed the pre Nakba past and the land of Palestine into symbols of what has been and continues to be lost Nakba brings to light the different ways in which Palestinians experienced and retain in memory the events of 1948 It is the first book to examine in detail how memories of Palestine s cataclysmic past are shaped by differences of class gender generation and geographical location In exploring the power of the past the authors show the urgency of the question of memory for understanding the contested history of the present Contributors Lila Abu Lughod Columbia University Diana Keown Allan Harvard University Haim Bresheeth University of East London Rochelle Davis Georgetown University Samera Esmeir University of California Berkeley Isabelle Humphries University of Surrey Lena Jayyusi Zayed University Laleh Khalili SOAS University of London Omar Al Qattan filmmaker Ahmad H Sa di Ben Gurion University Rosemary Sayigh Lebanon based anthropologist Susan Slyomovics University of California Los Angeles

Christou, 2014-11-04 This collection brings together an interdisciplinary pool of scholars to explore the relationship between children and borders with richly documented ethnographic studies from around the world The book provides a penetrating account of how borders affect children s lives and how children play a constitutive role in the social life of borders
