The Greenleaf Fires John A. Gould, 1978      History of the Fire Department of New Orleans Thomas O'Connor (of New Orleans), 1895      The Pacific Reporter, 1920 Comprising all the decisions of the Supreme Courts of California Kansas Oregon Washington Colorado Montana Arizona Nevada Idaho Wyoming Utah New Mexico Oklahoma District Courts of Appeal and Appellate Department of the Superior Court of California and Criminal Court of Appeals of Oklahoma varies

Fire and Water, 1899      The Baltimore Underwriter, 1890      The Miramichi Fire Alan MacEachern, 2020-07-23 On 7 October 1825 a massive forest fire swept through northeastern New Brunswick devastating entire communities When the smoke cleared it was estimated that the fire had burned across six thousand square miles one fifth of the colony The Miramichi Fire was the largest wildfire ever to occur within the British Empire one of the largest in North American history and the largest along the eastern seaboard Yet despite the international attention and relief efforts it generated and the ruin it left behind the fire all but disappeared from public memory by the twentieth century A masterwork in historical imagination The Miramichi Fire vividly reconstructs nineteenth century Canada's greatest natural disaster meditating on how it was lost to history First and foremost an environmental history the book examines the fire in the context of the changing relationships between humans and nature in colonial British North America and New England while also exploring social memory and the question of how history becomes established warped and forgotten Alan MacEachern explains how the imprecise and conflicting early reports of the fire's range along with the quick rebound of the forests and economy of New Brunswick led commentators to believe by the early 1900s that the fire's destruction had been greatly exaggerated As an exercise in digital history this book takes advantage of the proliferation of online tools and sources in the twenty first century to posit an entirely new reading of the past Resurrecting one of Canada's most famous and yet unexamined natural disasters The Miramichi Fire traverses a wide range of historical and scientific literatures to bring a more complete story into the light      The Captain Who Burned His Ships Gordon S Brown, 2011-09-15 This is the first biography of Captain Thomas Tingey a seminal figure in the early development of the U S Navy It is at the same time a biography of this important American naval figure and a history of the first quarter century of the Washington Navy Yard which Tingey commanded for that period It is also the story of the transition of the navy from an object of partisan discord to an honored and beloved defender of a growing and increasingly self confident young nation Tingey who came to America after a short service in the Royal Navy contributed importantly to the success of the navy in the War of 1812 and left a legacy of naval service which many of his descendants have followed The Captain Who Burned His Ships is designed to fill a blank in popular histories of the 19th century American navy which have been centered on the exploits of the heroes of the Barbary campaigns and the War of 1812 It looks at the development of the navy through its construction and logistical components in which the Washington yard and Tingey played an important role It looks at Tingey's contributions to the development of yard procedures and practices his civic role in the budding city of Washington and the tragic events of 1814 when he was forced to burn his own creation to save it from falling into British hands      Fire in California's Ecosystems Neil G.

Sugihara,2006-11-29 Focusing on California and issues specific to fire ecology and management in the state s bioregions this work provides scientific information for use in land restoration and other management decisions made in the field It introduces the basics of fire ecology and includes an overview of fire vegetation and climate in California and more
