The Griot:

The Griot Tradition as Remixed through Hip Hop Frederick Gooding Jr., 2023-08-08 Although Hip Hop is known to come from the streets of South Bronx New York its origins go far deeper than that Unconsciously the innovative souls of the 1970s Hip Hop movement demonstrated the captivating vibrational sound of the five regions in Africa Northern Africa Western Africa Eastern Africa Central Africa and Southern Africa Thus The Griot Tradition as Remixed through Hip Hop Straight Outta Africa fleshes out the common threads of Hip Hop s creative genius across the African diaspora and provides an analytical rubric as a guide to a greater understanding of Hip Hop The author Frederick Gooding examines why Hip Hop holds such an important place within contemporary culture in order to determine how a genre that was so controversial and marginal could become mainstream and central Through the use of various genres artists styles sounds images and rhetorical techniques Gooding analyzes how Hip Hop when seen through the lens of African connection can be appreciated for its regenerative and connective power to create relationships between people both nationally and internationally The Griot ,1994 Hopes for the Griot Hamlet Marie Milo, 2023-06-23 Hopes for the Griot Hamlet covers the lives and families of two eighteenth century women from different parts of the world They wind up living and working on a plantation in Virginia where their lives intertwine during the period of slavery Pages of the saga cover the greed lust ambition jealousy and even murder of some of its characters Hopes for the Griot Hamlet demonstrates how God has worked in the lives of people throughout the ages The Cinematic Griot Paul Stoller, 1992-06-15 The most prolific ethnographic filmmaker in the world a pioneer of cinema vérité and one of the earliest ethnographers of African societies Jean Rouch 1917 remains a controversial and often misunderstood figure in histories of anthropology and film By examining Rouch s neglected ethnographic writings Paul Stoller seeks to clarify the filmmaker s true place in anthropology A brief account of Rouch s background revealing the ethnographic foundations and intellectual assumptions underlying his fieldwork among the Songhay of Niger in the 1940s and 1950s sets the stage for his emergence as a cinematic griot a peripatetic bard who recites the story of a people through provocative imagery Against this backdrop Stoller considers Rouch s writings on Songhay history myth magic and possession migration and social change By analyzing in depth some of Rouch s most important films and assessing Rouch s ethnography in terms of his own expertise in Songhay culture Stoller demonstrates the inner connection between these two modes of representation Stoller who has done more fieldwork among the Songhay than anyone other than Rouch himself here gives the first full account of Rouch the griot whose own story scintillates with important implications for anthropology ethnography African studies and film Jazz Griots Jean-Philippe Marcoux, 2012-06-27 This book studies how four representative African American poets of the 1960s Langston Hughes Umbra s David Henderson and the Black Arts Movement s Sonia Sanchez and Amiri Baraka engage in the tradition of griots in poetic dialogues with aesthetics music politics and Black History In so doing they narrate using jazz as meta language genealogies etymologies cultural legacies and Black histories In intersecting and complementary ways Hughes Henderson Sanchez and Baraka fashioned their griotism from theorizations of artistry as political engagement and in turn formulated a Black aesthetic based on jazz performativity on a series of jazz infused iterations that form a complex pattern of literary musical historical and political moments in constant cross fertilizing dialogues with one another This form of poetic call and response becomes a definitional literary template for these poets as it allows both the possibility of intergenerational dialogues between poets and musicians and dialogic potential between song and politics between Africa and Black America between vernacular continuums in their poems
