Holmes,2014-07-14 The threat to the survival of humankind posed by nuclear weapons has been a frightening and essential focus of public debate for the last four decades and must continue to be so if we are to avoid destroying ourselves and the natural world around us One unfortunate result of preoccupation with the nuclear threat however has been a new kind of respectability accorded to conventional war In this radical and cogent argument for pacifism Robert Holmes asserts that all war not just nuclear war has become morally impermissible in the modern world Addressing a wide audience of informed and concerned readers he raises dramatic questions about the concepts of political realism and nuclear deterrence makes a number of persuasive suggestions for nonviolent alternatives to war and presents a rich panorama of thinking about war from St Augustine to Reinhold Niebuhr and Herman Kahn Holmes s positions are compellingly presented and will provoke discussion both among convinced pacifists and among those whom he calls militarists Militarists we realize after reading this book include the majority of us who live a friendly and peaceful personal life while supporting a system which if Holmes is correct guarantees war and risks eventual human extinction

Swartley, 2019 Deliver us from the evil one is the heart's cry from the Lord's Prayer Evil wears many faces in our modern world This book connects the Lord's Prayer to troubles of our times be it attacks from Satan the wars around the world the scourge of racism or the mass shootings of our time The subtitle of the book identifies the scope This book blends both deliverance from demonic bondage and witness to the powers in relation to political policies and government While the book aims to be a biblical theology on these topics it seeks also to address the praxis how these evils are confronted through healing deliverance ministries and what people of God say and do in witness to the powers The two streams of response to evil are really one as a faithful response to the saving work of the Lord God Almighty through Jesus Christ's victory over Satan sin evil and death Love your enemy confronts evil with power to transform A Cry For Help Mipo E. Dadang, 2022-05-30 The gospel of Christ is a gospel of peace yet Christianity has not escaped the specter of religious violence The legacy of the church has not only been one of patient suffering and forgiving love but also of brutal bloodshed With tensions between Christians and non Christians on the rise in many areas of the world the question of how the church is to respond to religious violence is a pressing one encompassing issues of ecclesiology theology and missiology Dr Mipo E Dadang explores the contextual realities that have led some believers in Northern Nigeria to embrace violence as a justifiable response to persecution Drawing on extensive interviews he provides an overview of the history of the church in the region the impact of local theologies and traditions on mindsets and behaviors and the insight of local believers into the catalysts and solutions to violent conflict Alongside this phenomenological study he provides a powerful biblical and theological foundation for understanding bloodshed as a violation of God's created order He weaves together biblical teachings the example of the early church and the theology of Martin Luther to demonstrate that the people of God are called to reject prevent and eliminate violence replacing it with creative alternatives This deeply powerful book has implications for every Christian seeking to live out the gospel of Christ in peaceful co existence with their neighbors
