The Politics Of Reconciliation Zimbabwe's First Decade:

The Politics of Reconciliation Victor De Waal, 1990 Making History in Mugabe's Zimbabwe Blessing-Miles Tendi, 2010 The crisis that has engulfed Zimbabwe since 2000 is not simply a struggle against dictatorship. It is also a struggle over ideas and deep seated historical issues still unresolved from the independence process that both Robert Mugabe's ZANU PF regime and Morgan Tsvangirai's MDC are vying first to define and then to address. This book traces the role of politicians and public intellectuals in media, civil society and the academy in producing and disseminating a politically usable historical narrative concerning ideas about patriotism, race, land, human rights and sovereignty. It raises pressing questions about the role of contemporary African intellectuals in the making of democratic societies. In so doing, the book adds a new and rich dimension to the study of African politics which is often diluted by the neglect of ideas. Mugabe and the Politics of Security in Zimbabwe Abiodun Alao, 2012 How President Robert Mugabe manipulated Zimbabwe's security policy to exploit past problems for present gain. Reconciliation and Religio-political Non-conformism in Zimbabwe Joram Tarusarira, 2016-05-20 Religio-political organisations in Zimbabwe play an important role in advocating democratisation and reconciliation against acquiescent, silenced or co-opted mainstream churches. Reconciliation and Religio-political Non-conformism in Zimbabwe analyses activities of religious organisations that deviate from the position of mainline churches and the political elites with regard to religious participation in political matters against a background of political conflict and violence. Drawing on detailed case studies of the Zimbabwe Christian Alliance (ZCA), Churches in Manicaland (CiM) and Grace to Heal (GtH), this book provocatively argues that in the face of an unsatisfactory religious and political culture, religio-political non-conformists emerge seeking to introduce a new ethos even in the face of negative sanctions from dominant religious and political systems. The Politics of the Thatcher Revolution G. Fry, 2015-12-04 The Thatcher era was the most dramatic period in British politics since the 1940s. As Conservative Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher proved to be the Iron Lady at home and abroad, this book analyzes the politics of the Thatcher era in an incisive and challenging manner.

Healing the Wounds of Gukurahundi in Zimbabwe Dumisani Ngwenya, 2017-12-14 This book is based on a participatory action research project carried out with a group of former Zimbabwe People's Revolutionary Army (ZPRA) which was the armed wing of the Zimbabwe African People's Union (ZAPU) which was led by the late Joshua Nkomo. ZPRA was the primary target of Gukurahundi, a pogrom by the Mugabe government which left an estimated 20,000 civilians dead and countless others tortured in the early 1980s in Matabeleland, Zimbabwe. It has been almost 30 years since the violence ended, but there has never been an official healing and reconciliation programme or truth commission into the atrocities. The government chose the path of amnesia by granting a blanket amnesty to all involved. The regime has enforced a culture of silence over the event through repression and intimidation. The book is a culmination of a two-year journey by the group and the author of an exploration of group-based self-healing approaches to the pain caused by the violence of Gukurahundi.

The Global Obama Dinesh Sharma,Uwe P. Gielen,2013-12-17 The Global Obama examines the president's image in five continents and more than twenty countries. It is the first book to look at Barack Obama's presidency and analyze how Obama and America are viewed by public governments and political commentators around the world. The author of Barack Obama in Hawaii and Indonesia: The Making of a Global President. Top 10 Black History Book. Scaled the globe to gather opinions, cultural, historical, and political analyses about Obama's leadership style. Writers, journalists, psychologists, consultants, and social scientists present their views on Obama's leadership, popularity, and many of the global challenges that still remain unresolved. As a progress report, this is the first book that tries to grasp the Obama phenomenon in totality as perceived by populations around the world with special focus on America's leadership in the 21st Century. The Nature of Whiteness Yuka Suzuki,2016-12-01 The Nature of Whiteness explores the intertwining of race and nature in postindependence Zimbabwe. Nature and environment have played prominent roles in white Zimbabwean identity, and when the political tide turned against white farmers after independence, nature was the most powerful resource they had at their disposal. In the 1970s, Mlilo, a private conservancy sharing boundaries with Hwange National Park, became the first site in Zimbabwe to experiment with wildlife production, and by the 1990s, wildlife tourism had become one of the most lucrative industries in the country. Mlilo attained international notoriety in 2015 as the place where Cecil the Lion was killed by a trophy hunter. Yuka Suzuki provides a balanced study of whiteness, the conservation of nature, and contested belonging in twenty-first-century southern Africa. The Nature of Whiteness is a fascinating account of human-animal relations and the interplay among categories of race and nature in this embattled landscape. Afrasia Seifudein Adem,Ali A. Mazrui,2013-05-02 Is there a new scramble for Africa involving China, Japan, and India in competition with each other and with the Western world? In the second half of the twentieth century, Mao's China and Jawaharlal Nehru's India were political players in Africa, while Japan limited itself to trade and investment in Africa. Africa and Asia have historically been allies against Western exploitation and have also been rivals as producers of raw materials. India and West Asia have led the way in the soft power of culture and religion in Africa, while Japan and China have engaged in the harder disciplines of the economy and the construction of infrastructure. This book explores the historical and unfolding dynamic interactions among China, India, Japan, and Africa and their ramifications. Apologia Politica Girma Negash,2006-04-27 Apologia Politica defines and explores the nature of public apology. Focusing on collectivities and their agencies in the apology process, author Girma Negash examines public apology as ethical and public discourse, recommends criteria for the apology process, analyzes historical and contemporary cases, and formulates a guide to ethical conduct in public apologies. This is a groundbreaking work elaborating upon the interface between ethics and statecraft in the domain of public apology. Using democracy, moral identity, and accumulated wisdom as a yardstick in the prescription of ethical conduct, Apologia Politica proposes four imperatives for successful public apology: acknowledgement, public exposure, and truth telling, remorse through public record, and finally, defining identity for accountability It is a valuable resource for those interested in peace building or the relationships between Germany and Israel Japan and its neighboring countries the international community and Rwanda and the United States and China

Picking Up the Pieces Samuel Cyuma, 2012-05-22 In the last ten years of the 20th century the world was twice confronted with unbelievable news from Africa First there was the end of Apartheid in South Africa Who would have thought that such a change would be possible without bloodshed But the miracle happened due to responsible political and Church leaders and as a result of the unique processes organized through the Truth and Reconciliation Commission under the leadership of Archbishop Desmond Tutu The second unbelievable experience from Africa was of a rather different and awfully shocking nature the mass killings in Rwanda This event soon developed into a real genocide and created a wave of horror around the world There political and Church leaders had been unable to prevent this crime against humanity The Struggles After the Struggle David Kaulemu, 2008 National Healing, Integration and Reconciliation in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, 2019-12-06 This book brings together scholars from diverse backgrounds to provide interdisciplinary perspectives on national healing integration and reconciliation in Zimbabwe Taking into account the complex nature of healing across moral political economic cultural psychological and spiritual dimensions of communities and the nation the chapters discuss approaches disparities tensions and solutions to healing and reconciliation within a multidisciplinary framework Arguing that Zimbabwe's development agenda is severely compromised by the dominance of violence and militancy the contributors analyse the challenges possibilities and opportunities for national healing This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies conflict and reconciliation and development studies Encyclopedia of the World's Minorities Carl Skutsch, 2013-11-07 This study of minorities involves the difficult issues of rights justice equality dignity identity autonomy political liberties and cultural freedoms The A Z Encyclopedia presents the facts arguments and areas of contention in over 560 entries in a clear objective manner For a full list of entries contributors and more visit the Encyclopedia of the World's Minorities website Public Intellectuals and the Politics of Global Africa Seifudein Adem, 2010 Ali Mazrui has been described as one of the most original thinkers that Africa has produced and one of the top 100 living public intellectuals in the world today This volume uses Mazrui's life and work as a guide towards explaining the historical impact of black public intellectuals such as Julius K Nyerere Patrice Lumumba and Barack Obama The book explores not only politics and academics but also religion gender class and civil military relations bringing together into the black experience both Plato's concept of the philosopher King and V I Lenin's notion of the intelligentsia African Women M. Turshen, 2010-11-08 This book will present three main themes of African women African feminism women and work and women and politics to inform readers of the current debates to encourage new thinking on these issues and to indicate areas for needed research The Politics of Memory Alexandra Barahona De Brito, Carmen Gonzalez Enriquez, Paloma Aguilar, 2001-04-05 One of the most important political and ethical questions faced during a political transition from authoritarian or totalitarian to democratic rule is how to deal with legacies of repression Indeed some of the most fundamental questions regarding law morality and politics are raised at such times as societies look back to understand how they lost their moral and political compass failing to contain violence and promote the values of tolerance and peace The Politics of Memory sheds light on this important aspect of transitional politics assessing how Portugal Spain the countries of Central and Eastern Europe and Germany after reunification Russia the Southern Cone of Latin America and Central America as well as South Africa have confronted legacies of repression The book examines the presence or absence of three types of official efforts to come to terms with the past truth commissions trials and amnesties and purges In addition it looks at unofficial initiatives emerging from within society usually involving human rights organisations HROs churches or political parties Where relevant it also examines the politics of memory whereby societies re work the past in an effort to come to terms with it both during the transitions and long after official transitional policies have been implemented or forgotten The book also assesses the significance of forms of reckoning with the past for a process of democratization or democratic deepening It also focuses on the role of international actors in such processes as external players are becoming increasingly influential in shaping national policy where human rights are concerned

Hidden Dimensions of Operation Murambatsvina, The Maurice Taonezvi Vambe, 2008 In his introduction to The Hidden Dimensions Maurice Vambe argues that the treatment of people as human dirt demands the notion of citizenship in Zimbabwe be rethought

Reconciliation in Divided Societies Erin Daly, Jeremy Sarkin, 2011-09-07 As nations struggling to heal wounds of civil war and atrocity turn toward the model of reconciliation Reconciliation in Divided Societies takes a systematic look at the political dimensions of this international phenomenon The book shows us how this transformation happens so that we can all gain a better understanding of how and why reconciliation really works It is an almost indispensable tool for those who want to engage in reconciliation from the foreword by Archbishop Emeritus Desmond Tutu As societies emerge from oppression war or genocide their most important task is to create a civil society strong and stable enough to support democratic governance More and more conflict torn countries throughout the world are promoting reconciliation as central to their new social order as they move toward peace and stability Scores of truth and reconciliation commissions are helping bring people together and heal the wounds of deeply divided societies Since the South African transition countries as diverse as Timor Leste Sierra Leone Fiji Morocco and Peru have placed reconciliation at the center of their reconstruction and development programs Other efforts to promote reconciliation including trials and governmental programs are also becoming more prominent in transitional times But until now there has been no real effort to understand exactly what reconciliation could mean in these different situations What does true reconciliation entail How can it be achieved How can its achievement be assessed This book digs beneath the surface to answer these questions and explain what the concepts of truth justice forgiveness and reconciliation really involve in societies that are recovering from internecine strife Looking to the future as much as to the past Erin Daly and Jeremy Sarkin maintain that reconciliation requires fundamental political and economic reform along with personal healing if it is to be effective in establishing lasting peace and stability Reconciliation they argue is best thought of as a means for transformation It is the engine that enables victims to become survivors and divided societies to transform themselves into communities where people work together to raise children and live productive hopeful lives Reconciliation in Divided Societies shows us how this transformation happens so that we can all gain a better understanding of how and why reconciliation is actually accomplished
