Rebounding Identities Dominique Arel, Blair A. Ruble, 2006-11-29 Rebounding Identities is based on a series of workshops held at the Kennan Institute in 2002 and 2003 The Global Politics of Educational Borrowing and Lending Gita Steiner-Khamsi, 2004-10-14 The globalization of educational policy has become a popular if not ubiquitous phenomenon among educational policymakers across the world It has led many observers to conclude that educational systems in different parts of the world are converging towards one international neo liberal model of school reform This practice of borrowing and lending school reforms requires a serious examination of the politics and the economics of transnational educational transfer In this volume Steiner Khamsi and her colleagues provide an in depth empirical and critical examination of the practice of global educational policy Contributors question the value of importing and exporting educational policies analyze who benefits from these arrangements and test the effectiveness of adapting one country s policies in other often quite culturally distinct countries The book investigates how global policies have been implemented locally and examines the extent to which they work in diverse locales teiner Khamsi and her colleagues also examine the role and practices of non governmental organizations NGOs multilateral organizations and the World Bank in fostering how educational policies are disseminated and adapted across national and cultural boundaries Education with Character James Arthur, 2003

Education with character is the latest buzzphrase but until now there s been no real concensus on some of the key issues
This book addresses the gap adopting a cross disciplinary approach to the matters in hand Selected Bibliography of
