Technocracy and Political Truth Guido Niccolò Barbi, 2025-09-02 The inability to Wilshire's Magazine ,1901 envision political alternatives or to use Arendt's terminology to make new beginnings is a key component of today s democratic crisis In its first part this study shows that this situation results from the growing technocratization of both government and the democratic public sphere which hinders the ability to form new political judgments By analyzing rationalized bureaucracy which substitutes automated procedures for political decision and mass democracy which permits the infinite expansion of the administration s purview an account of technocracy as administrative non political rule is constructed The book's second part expands on this diagnosis by examining how political judgment differs from epistemic reasoning This examination puts into dialogue Arendt Kant and Vico reviving a humanist understanding of common sense sensus communis and ingenuity ingenium This allows us to rethink political judgment as both cognitively immediate and reflectively plural showcasing how technocratic decision making illegitimately delimits the horizon for political judgments and new beginnings Encounter Stephen Spender, Irving Kristol, 1972 The Forum Lorettus Sutton Metcalf, Walter Hines Page, Joseph Mayer Rice, Frederic Taber Cooper, Arthur Hooley, George Henry Payne, Henry Goddard Leach, 1889 Current political social scientific education and literary news written about by many famous authors and reform movements
