United Nations Peacekeeping and the Politics of Authoritarianism Sarah von Billerbeck, Birte Julia Gippert, Kseniya Oksamytna, Oisín Tansey, 2025-01-11 What impact does UN peacekeeping have on the politics of authoritarianism in host countries This book advances a theoretically innovative and empirically rich answer to this question while the UN does not intentionally promote authoritarianism it faces a number of constraints and dilemmas that give rise to what we call authoritarian enabling Enabling can occur through two mechanisms capacity building and the creation of a permissive environment which enhance the ability of host governments to engage in authoritarian behavior and signal to them that doing so is low cost This book illustrates these two mechanisms with four in depth case studies of UN peacekeeping operations UNTAC in Cambodia MONUC MONUSCO in the Democratic Republic of Congo MINUSTAH in Haiti and UNMIL in Liberia The analysis is based on primary interview data from over 200 interviews The authors explore the sources of enabling identifying the trade offs and contradictions that give rise to these two mechanisms They include respect for sovereignty the importance of working relations with the host government the tension between democracy and other mission goals the pressure to demonstrate quick results and divergences within missions and the broader international community While enabling stops short of the outright promotion of authoritarianism it explains why the UN s activities often appear to contradict its stated objectives and the outcomes it delivers fall short of its goals In addition to its theoretical and empirical contributions the book suggests how these dilemmas and challenges can be overcome

The Politics of the Black "nation" Georgia Anne Persons, This volume of the National Political Science Review the official publication of the National Political Science Association is anchored by a major symposium on The Politics of the Black Nation the book authored by Matthew Holden in 1973 which is now considered one of the most influential books in the field of black politics Twenty five years provide a sufficient timespan on which to base a retrospective of the book and simultaneously to reflect upon the evolution of the black liberation struggle more formally called African American politics In the present age there is not much talk about a black nation certainly not as was heard during the 1960s and mid 1970s Yet there is a persistent sense of separateness in that there is constant thought and talk of Black America as a significantly separate communal entity Black Americans are seen as a racially and culturally distinct community holding to social political economic interests which have special significance and poignancy for them Holden s perception of the nature of the times in the early seventies stands in sharp contrast to how contemporary analysts of African American politics tend to perceive the nature of African Americans role in political life and their position in American society in the present age In this retrospective readers have the opportunity to get a sense of what Holden argued of the seven essays that make up his seminal volume and to consider how well Holden s observations have stood the tests of time In addition to the essays presented at the symposium which pointedly discuss Holden s work there are essays dealing with African American Politics in Constancy and Change by contributors including Charles Henry David Covin Robert C Smith Clyde Lusane Cheryl Miller D Linell Finley and Sekou Franklin among others Other features are a highly informative discussion of the Literary Digest magazine s Straw Vote Presidential Polls 1916 1936 and a review essay by Peter Ronaye in which he discusses America as New World Power U S Foreign Policy in the Post Cold War Era The volume concludes with fifteen book reviews by knowledgeable scholars The Politics of the Black Nation is a timely thought provoking volume It will be of immense value to ethnic studies specialists African American studies scholars political scientists historians and sociologists Georgia A Persons is professor in the School of Public Policy at the Georgia Institute of Technology and the current editor of the National Political Science Review

The Politics of Conflict Monica Ingber, 2015-04-01 By looking at the problem of complicity in political violence from a social versus a legal perspective The Politics of Conflict offers readers new insight into the ways in which violence operates To do this Monica Ingber applies Gilles Deleuze s analysis of the novellas of Leopold Sacher Masoch particularly Venus in Furs to the politics of violence in Iraq Specifically Ingber develops the concept of transubstantiatory violence to think through the relationship between social complicity and political violence By assessing politics in Iraq through the lens of transubstantiatory violence it becomes possible to see how social complicity validates what would be otherwise viewed as illegitimate forms of violence This legitimization of violence is addressed through the problematization of the modern correlation of security law and the social contract by exploring three key areas of socio politics state making and nation building political movements and the popular militia A serious study that makes important contributions to political science political philosophy and conflict studies The Politics of Conflict demonstrates an alternative view of violence that is provocative in its ability to destabilize dominant understandings of regime violence and the counter reactions of opposition movements
