has been defined by our desire for ascendance politically militarily economically religiously culturally and of course physically These spectacular superstructures epitomise more than architectural aspiration they excite the imagination and inspire awe The scope of the book is deliberately broad with a thematic first section and a geographical second section Conceptual chapters introduce the origins of our desire to build high and explore the skyscraper's role in fuelling our imaginations through different modes of cultural expression How To Read Skyscrapers offers a deep and rich understanding of the skyscraper by providing a comprehensive account of this unique and captivating building type from its origins in myth and legend to its future potential in satisfying humankind's needs and aspirations Pagodas in Play Adrienne Ward, 2010

Pagodas in Play analyzes the treatment of China in the imaginative and spectacular world of eighteenth century Italian opera It shows how Italians used perceptions of Chinese culture to address local and transnational developments particularly Enlightenment and secular reform initiatives Its focus on the texts and performance practices of opera an entertainment form accessible to a wide public reveals cultural operations and identities harder to detect in non-fictional reformist writings the texts traditionally privileged to explain Italian mediations of Enlightenment ideas In its close reading of nine libretti of the most salient Settecento operas treating China opere serie and opere buffe by authors including Metastasio Zeno Goldoni and Lorenzi Pagodas in Play differentiates Italian iterations of Chinese culture from French and English counterparts It further challenges certain tenets of orientalism showing how it operates when nationalist and or colonialist projects are absent and how orientalist practices in eighteenth century Italy exhibit early on the complexity some scholars locate only in the twentieth century Adrienne Ward teaches Italian literature and culture at the University of Virginia Acquiring Cultures Bénédicte Savoy, Charlotte Guichard, Christine Howald, 2018-12-03 As more parts of the world outside Europe became accessible and in the wake of social and technological developments in the 18th century a growing number of exotic artefacts entered European markets The markets for such objects thrived while a collecting culture and museums emerged This book provides insights into the methods and places of exchange networks prices expertise and valuation concepts as well as the transfer and transport of these artefacts over 300 years and across four continents The contributions are from international experts including Ting Chang N lia Dias No mie Etienne Jonathan Fine Philip Jones Sylvester Okwunodu Ogbachie L a Saint Raymond and Masako Yamamoto

Henri Bertin and the Representation of China in Eighteenth-Century France John Finlay, 2020-07-09 This is an in depth study of the intellectual technical and artistic encounters between Europe and China in the late eighteenth century focusing on the purposeful acquisition of information and images that characterized a direct engagement with the idea of China The central figure in this story is Henri L onard Bertin 1720 1792 who served as a minister of state under Louis XV and briefly Louis XVI Both his official position and personal passion for all things Chinese placed him at the center of intersecting networks of like minded individuals who shared his ideal vision of China as a nation from which France had much to learn John Finlay examines a fascinating episode in the rich history of cross cultural exchange between China and Europe in the early modern period and this book will be an important and timely contribution to a very current discussion about Sino French cultural relations This book will be of interest to scholars in art history visual culture European and Chinese history
