In his series essay What Is an African American Classic Gates provides a broader view of the canon of classics of African American literature available from Penguin Classics and beyond. Gates writes: "These texts reveal the human universal through the African American particular: all true art all classics do this. This is what art is: a revelation of that which makes each of us sublimely human, rendered in the minute details of the actions and thoughts and feelings of a compelling character embedded in a time and place."
