The Postmodern Archipelago:

The Postmodern Archipelago Michael Swanwick, 1997-11-01      Supplanting the Postmodern David Rudrum, Nicholas Stavris, 2015-09-24 An anthology of key writings on the so called demise of postmodernism and the debates around what might replace it      Oswald Mathias Ungers and Rem Koolhaas Lara Schrijver, 2021-10-07 Lara Schrijver examines the work of Oswald Mathias Ungers and Rem Koolhaas as intellectual legacy of the 1970s for architecture today Particularly in the United States this period focused on the autonomy of architecture as a correction to the social orientation of the 1960s Yet these two architects pioneered a more situated autonomy initiating an intellectual discourse on architecture that was inherently design based Their work provides room for interpreting social conditions and disciplinary formal developments thus constructing a plausible relationship between the two that allows the life within to flourish and adapt In doing so they provide a foundation for recalibrating architecture today      The Year's Best Science Fiction: Sixteenth Annual Collection Gardner Dozois, 1999-07-30 The past through tomorrow are boldly imagined and reinvented in the twenty five stories collected in this showcase anthology Many of the field s finest practitioners are represented here along with stories from promising newcomers including William Barton Rob Chilson Tony Daniel Cory Doctorow Jim Grimsley Gwyneth Jones Chris Lawson Ian McDonald Robert Reed William Browning Spencer Allen Steele Michael Swanwick Howard Waldrop Cherry Wilder Liz Williams A useful list of honorable mentions and Dozois s insightful summation of the year in sf round out this anthology making it indispensable for anyone interested in SF today      The Other America J. Michael Dash, 1998 A wide ranging work that explores two centuries of Caribbean literature from a comparative perspective While haunted by the need to establish cultural difference and authenticity Caribbean thought is inherently modernist in its recognition of the interplay between cultures brought about by centuries of contact domination and consent      Off the Main Sequence Tom Easton, 2006-10-01 Tom Easton has served as the monthly book review columnist for Analog Science Fiction for almost three decades having contributed during that span many hundreds of columns and over a million words of penetrating criticism on the best literature that science fiction has to offer His reviews have been celebrated for their wit humor readability knowledge and incisiveness His love of literature particularly fantastic literature is everywhere evident in his essays Easton has ever been willing to cover small presses obscure authors and unusual publications being the only major critic in the field to do so on a regular basis He seems to delight in finding the rare gem among the backwaters of the publishing field A reviewer s job he says is not to judge books for the ages but to tell readers enough about a book to give them some idea of whether they would enjoy it And this he does admirably whether he s discussing the works of the great writers in the field or touching upon the least amongst them This companion volume to Periodic Stars Borgo Wildside collects another 250 of Easton s best reviews from the last fifteen years of The Reference Library No one does it better and no other guide provides such lengthy or discerning commentary on the best SF works of recent times Complete with Introduction and detailed Index

(Post-)colonial Archipelagos Hans-Jürgen Burchardt, Johanna Leinius, 2022-02-22 The Puerto Rican debt crisis the challenges of social political and economic transition in Cuba and the populist politics of Duterte in the Philippines these topics are typically seen as disparate experiences of social reality Though these island territories were colonized by the same two colonial powers by the Spanish Empire and after 1898 by the United States research in the fields of history and the social sciences rarely draws links between these three contexts Located at the intersection of Postcolonial Studies Latin American Studies Caribbean Studies and History this interdisciplinary volume brings together scholars from the US Europe Latin America the Caribbean and the Philippines to examine the colonial legacies of the three island nations of Cuba Puerto Rico and the Philippines Instead of focusing on the legacies of US colonialism the continuing legacies of Spanish colonialism are put center stage The analyses offered in the volume yield new and surprising insights into the study of colonial and postcolonial constellations that are of interest not only for experts but also for readers interested in the social political economic and cultural dynamics of Cuba Puerto Rico and the Philippines during Spanish colonization and in the present The empirical material profits from a rigorous and systematic analytical framework and is thus easily accessible for students researchers and the interested public alike
