Individualizing Gender and Sexuality Nancy Chodorow, 2012 Nancy Chodorow in her groundbreaking book The Reproduction of Mothering guite simply changed the conversation in at least three areas of study psychoanalysis women s studies and sociology In her latest book Individualizing Gender and Sexuality she examines the complexity and uniqueness of each person s personal creation of sexuality and gender and the ways that these interrelate with other aspects of psychic and cultural life She brings her well known theoretical agility wide ranging interdisciplinarity and clinical experience to every chapter advocating for the clinician s openness curiosity and theoretical pluralism The book begins with reflections on Freud s Three Essays on the Theory of Sexuality followed by considerations of Melanie Klein and Stephen Mitchell as well as on her own work and on the postmodern turn in psychoanalytic gender theory Subsequent chapters address contemporary clinical cultural issues such as women and work women and motherhood and men and violence Concluding chapters elaborate on the multiple ingredients and the personal affective conflictual and defensive constellations and processes that create sexuality and gender in each individual Ending with a chapter on homosexualities as compromise formations Chodorow deepens her account of clinical individuality and sex gender transference countertransference while bringing her readers back to Freud and to the many strands that followed as she consolidates a consistent line of interest in sexuality and gender theory and Sexual Justice / Cultural Justice Barbara Arneil, Monique Deveaux, Rita Dhamoon, Avigail practice sustained over a lifetime Eisenberg, 2006-11-22 This key volume explores the relationship between cultural justice and sexual justice in multicultural societies in a new light The authors challenge the framing of feminism and multiculturalism as one of inevitable conflict as well as the portrayal of liberal sexual equality and cultural rights as irreconcilable moving the debate beyond the culture gender impasse Focusing on three theoretical themes from a feminist perspective the meaning and role of culture and identity in politics the problem of autonomy in relation to culture and identity the crucial role of democracy in addressing the theoretical and practical problems raised by this set of issues The diverse contributors break new theoretical ground by providing detailed engagement with the concrete experiences of women and minorities who are caught in the dilemmas of gender and cultural justice. The collected chapters address sexual cultural justice in a range of different countries offering illuminating case studies on Britain South Africa Canada the Netherlands Australia Mexico and the United States Sexual Justice Cultural Justice will be of strong interest to students and researchers working in the areas of gender and feminist theory politics law philosophy and sociology What Do Mothers Want? Sheila F. Brown, 2013-05-13 What do mothers want and need from their parenting partners their extended families their friends colleagues and communities And what can mental health professionals do to help them meet their daunting responsibilities in the contemporary world The talented contributors to What Do Mothers Want address these questions from perspectives that encompass differences in marital status parental status gender and sexual orientation Traversing the biological psychological cultural and economic dimensions of mothering they provide a compelling brief on the perplexing choices confronting mothers in the contemporary world Of course mothers most basically want their children to be safe and healthy But to this end they want and need many things caring partners intergenerational and community support a responsive workplace public services and opportunities to share their experiences with other mothers And they want their feelings and actions as mothers to be understood and accepted by those around them and by society at large The role of psychotherapy in reaching these latter goals is taken up by many of the contributors They reflect on the special psychological challenges of pregnancy birth and the arrival of a newborn into a couple s whether hetero or homosexual life and they address new venues of therapeutic assistance such as brief low cost therapy for at risk mothers and infants and group interventions to help couples grow into the new role of parental International Perspectives on Gender and Mathematics Education Olof Steinthorsdottir, Helen J. couples Forgasz, Joanne Rossi Becker, Kyeonghwa Lee, 2010-06-01 Why a book on gender issues in mathematics in the 21st century Several factors have influenced the undertaking of this project by the editors First an international volume focusing on gender and mathematics has not appeared since publication of papers emerging from the 1996 International Congress on Mathematical Education Keitel 1998 Surely it was time for an updated look at this critical area of mathematics education Second we have had lively discussion and working groups on gender issues at conferences of the International Group for the Psychology of Mathematics Education PME for the past four years sessions at which stimulating and ground breaking research has been discussed by participants from many different countries Some publication seemed essential to share this new knowledge emerging from a wider variety of countries and from different cultural perspectives Third some western countries such as Australia and the USA have experienced in recent years a focus on the boy problem with an underlying assumption that issues of females and mathematics have been solved and are no longer worthy of interest Thus it seemed timely to look more closely at the issue of gender and mathematics internationally When the idea for this volume first emerged invitations were issued to those regularly attending the working and discussion groups at PME Potential authors were charged to focus on gender issues in mathematics and were given wide scope to hone in on the issues that were central to their own research efforts or were in receipt or in need of close attention in their own national or regional contexts
