The Power Of Wisdom The Magic Of Seeing What Others Cant:

The Power of Wisdom Aman A. Motwane, 1997-08 The Story Factor Annette Simmons, 2009-03-17 This modern classic teaches you to use the art of storytelling to persuade motivate and inspire in life and business Anyone seeking to influence others must first know their own story and how to tell it properly Whether you re proposing a risky new venture trying to close a deal or leading a charge against injustice you have a story to tell Tell it well and you will create a shared experience with your listeners that can have profound results In this modern classic Annette Simmons reminds us that the oldest tool of influence is also the most powerful Showcasing over a hundred examples of effective storytelling drawn from the front lines of business and government as well as myths fables and parables from around the world Simmons illustrates how story can be used to persuade motivate and inspire in ways that cold facts bullets points and directives can t These stories combined with practical storytelling techniques show anyone how to become a more effective communicator and achieve their goals

Death, Beauty, Struggle Margaret Trawick, 2017-04-27 Death Beauty Struggle represents a long labor of love and the summation of forty years of Margaret Trawick's groundbreaking research Centering her gaze on the lowest castes of India now called Dalits she describes the experience of women at this precarious level who are still treated as sub human sometimes by family members sometimes by higher caste men Their private worlds however are full of art rural Dalit women sing beautiful songs of their own making and tell remarkable narratives of their own lives Much that Tamil women shared with Trawick is rooted in the passionate attachments and acute wounds generated within families but these women's voices resonate well beyond individually circumscribed lives In their songs and life stories they critique social political economic and domestic oppressions They also incorporate visions of natural beauty and immanent divinity Trawick presents Tamil women's words as relevant to universal human themes Trawick's frames of analysis developed throughout her long career of fieldwork in India inform her ethnography of expressive culture The songs and stories of Dalit women were recorded and transcribed to be translated into lyrical passages in her own work Death Beauty Struggle demonstrates a conviction that persons without privilege from the rape victim to the landless laborer possess both power and agency Through verbal arts Dalit women produce not only acute cultural critiques but also astonishing beauty

Can't Find the Will Power? Lew Hamburger, 2010-05-26 The premise of this book is that most people know what they have to do in life in most circumstances When we become stuck it's less about knowledge or insight than about a lack of willpower because the choices seem too tough I confess I'm a people junkie I never cease to be amazed by the variety of things people do to and for each other At times these things are terrifying more often they're inspiring Either way they create constant wonder and awe We all seem to have the capacity to terrify and or inspire within us What follows is an approach to help peel away myriad variables that confuse and immobilize us and reach the basic some would say oversimplified questions and concepts that can bring out the best in us Being on the top of your game requires thinking ahead putting yourself in the position you think will be coming and taking the action you think will help you do your best Above all it suggests practice practice practice A book
