   The Practical Visions of Ya'qub Sanu' Irene L. Gendzier,1974-07   The Practical Visions of Ya'qub Sanu' Irene L. Gendzier,Harvard University. Center for Middle Eastern Studies,1966   The Construct of Egypt's National-Self in James Sanua's Early Satire and Caricature Eliane Ursula Ettmüller,2020-08-10 No detailed description available for The Construct of Egypt s National Self in James Sanua s Early Satire and Caricature   Historians, State and Politics in Twentieth Century Egypt Anthony Gorman,2003 This book deals with the relationship between historical scholarship and politics in twentieth century Egypt It examines the changing roles of the academic historian the university system the state and non academic scholarship and the tension between them in contesting the modern history of Egypt In a detailed discussion of the literature the study analyzes the political nature of competing interpretations and uses the examples of Copts and resident foreigners to demonstrate the dissonant challenges to the national discourse that testify to its limitations deficiencies and silences
   The Eastern Mediterranean and the Making of Global Radicalism, 1860-1914 Ilham Khuri-Makdisi,2013-08-03 In this groundbreaking book Ilham Khuri Makdisi establishes the existence of a special radical trajectory spanning four continents and linking Beirut Cairo and Alexandria between 1860 and 1914 She shows that socialist and anarchist ideas were regularly discussed disseminated and reworked among intellectuals workers dramatists Egyptians Ottoman Syrians ethnic Italians Greeks and many others in these cities In situating the Middle East within the context of world history Khuri Makdisi challenges nationalist and elite narratives of Mediterranean and Middle Eastern history as well as Eurocentric ideas about global radical movements The book demonstrates that these radical trajectories played a fundamental role in shaping societies throughout the world and offers a powerful rethinking of Ottoman intellectual and social history   Modern Middle Eastern Jewish Thought Moshe Behar,Zvi Ben-Dor Benite,2013-04-09 The first anthology of modern Middle Eastern Jewish thought   Ordinary Egyptians Ziad Fahmy,2011-05-31 Examines how popular media and culture provided ordinary Egyptians with a framework to construct and negotiate a modern national identity   The Making of the Arab Intellectual Dyala Hamzah,2012 In the wake of the Ottoman Empire s nineteenth century reforms as guilds waned and new professions emerged the scholarly estate underwent social differentiation Some found employment in the state s new institutions as translators teachers and editors whilst others resisted civil servant status Gradually the scholar morphed into the public writer Despite his fledgling status he catered for the public interest all the more so since new professionals such as doctors engineers and lawyers endorsed this latest social role as an integral part of their own self image This dual preoccupation with self definition and all things public is the central concern of this book Focusing on the period after the tax farming scholar took the bow and before the alienated intellectual prevailed on the contemporary Arab cultural scene it situates the making of the Arab intellectual within the dysfunctional space of competing states interests known as the Nahda

Located between Empire and Colony the emerging Arab public sphere was a space of over and under regulation hindering accountability and upsetting allegiances The communities that Arab intellectuals imagined including the Pan Islamic Pan Arab and socialist sat astride many a polity and never became contained by post colonial states Examining a range of canonical and less canonical authors this interdisciplinary approach to The Making of the Modern Arab Intellectual will be of interest to students and scholars of the Middle East history political science comparative literature and philosophy

Nasserist Ideology: Its Exponents and Critics Nissim Rejwan,1974 A Different Shade of Colonialism Eve Troutt Powell,2003-05-29 This incisive study adds a new dimension to discussions of Egypt s nationalist response to the phenomenon of colonialism as well as to discussions of colonialism and nationalism in general Eve M Troutt Powell challenges many accepted tenets of the binary relationship between European empires and non European colonies by examining the triangle of colonialism marked by Great Britain Egypt and the Sudan She demonstrates how central the issue of the Sudan was to Egyptian nationalism and highlights the deep ambivalence in Egyptian attitudes toward empire and the resulting ambiguities and paradoxes that were an essential component of the nationalist movement A Different Shade of Colonialism enriches our understanding of nineteenth and twentieth century Egyptian attitudes toward slavery and race and expands our perspective of the colonized colonizer Conflicted Antiquities Elliott Colla,2008-01-11 A cultural history of European and Egyptian interest in ancient Egypt and its material culture from the early nineteenth century until the mid twentieth Jewish Writers in the Arab East Lisa Lital Levy,2007 An Islamic Response to Imperialism Nikki R. Keddie,Jamāl al-Dīn Afghānī,1968 Keddie has rendered a valuable service Afghani merits the attention of Western students of the contemporary international scene and the Muslim renaissance since he made the first significant attempt to answer the modern Western challenge to the Muslim world Eastern World Sayyid Jamal ad Din al Afghani 1838 1897 the well known religious reformer and political activist led a busy and complex life full of obscure and clandestine ventures Keddie draws on a wide range of primary and secondary sources In part I an attempt is made to provide an accurate biography and a consistent analysis of Afghani Part II co ntains translations of some of his most important writings Although Afghani was concerned with the wide ranging need for Islamic reform he devoted most of his life to the more urgent political problems confronting Muslims problems arising out of their weakness in dealing with the Western Christian powers Hence the tide of this book The picture that emerges here confirms Afghani s long standing reputation as a defender of Muslim interests not against borrowing European advances in science and technology but against foreign political economic or military encroachment Middle East journal Jamal ad Din was a mysterious figure and most of the mysteries were of his own making it has been left to Professor Keddie to apply the methods of the critical historian to the matter This book shows how successful she has been there has emerged for the first time a credible picture of Jamal ad Din s life The second part contains translations of works by Jamal ad Din himself and these are valuable because most of them were written in Persian and have either not been easily available at all or else have been available only in Arabic translation This is particularly true of the Refutation of the Materialists International journal of Middle East Studies For the first time a significant collection of the writings of al Afghani are now available in English and so for the first time this controversial figure has had more life breathed into him American Historical Review South Asia Bulletin ,2008 The Evolution of the Egyptian National Image Charles Wendell,1972-01-01 A Handbook and Reader of Ottoman Arabic Esther-Miriam Wagner,2021-09-10 Written forms of Arabic composed during the era of the Ottoman Empire present an immensely fruitful linguistic topic Extant texts display a proximity to the vernacular that cannot be encountered in any other surviving historical Arabic material and thus provide unprecedented access to Arabic language history This rich material remains very little explored Traditionally scholarship on Arabic has focussed overwhelmingly on the literature of the various Golden Ages between the 8th and 13th centuries whereas texts from the 15th century onwards have often been viewed as corrupted and not worthy of study The lack of interest in Ottoman Arabic culture and literacy left these sources almost completely neglected in university courses This volume is the first linguistic work to focus exclusively on varieties of Christian Jewish and Muslim Arabic in the Ottoman Empire of the 15th to the 20th centuries and present Ottoman Arabic material in a didactic and easily accessible way Split into a Handbook and a Reader section the book provides a historical introduction to Ottoman literacy translation studies vernacularisation processes language policy and linguistic pluralism The second part contains excerpts from more than forty sources edited and translated by a diverse network of scholars The material presented includes a large number of yet unedited texts such as Christian Arabic letters from the Prize Paper collections mercantile correspondence and notebooks found in the Library of Gotha and Garshuni texts from archives of Syriac patriarchs The Cambridge History of Africa J.
